THE SOCIAL REALM.

Marriage of Miss Esther Johnson to B. C. Jakway Occurs Tonight.

This evening at 8 o'clock in the Congregational church will occur the marriage of one of the most highly respected young ladies of Eugene, Miss Esther Elizabeth Johnson, to Mr Bernard C Jakway, of Portland. The ceremony will be conducted by Rev Mac H Wallace. The church will be beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mrs J W Johnson of 392 Lawrence street, and has resided in Eugene all her life. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon, having been a member of the class of 1901. Mr Jakway is also a graduate of the University and of the same class. He is a promising young business man of Portland, at present holding a good position with J W Mack & Co, of that city.

At the ceremony this evening Miss Isabel Jakway, sister of the groom, and Miss Leila Straub will act as bridesmaids. Mr Loris Johnson, brother of the bride, will be best man. Condon McCornack and Wistar Hawthorne will be ushers. Outside of the circle of near relatives the invited guests are the following: Professor and Mrs John Straub, Professor and Mrs Mark Bailey, Mr and Mrs I L Campbell, Mrs Roscoe Bryson (Pendleton), Miss Margaret Kinsey, Miss Amy Dunn and Miss Leila Straub.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs D A Paine entertained a number of her friends at her palatial home at 109 East Eleventh street. A unique feature of the occasion was a millinery competition, the trophy winner being Mrs Samuel Nelson. The latter part of the afternoon was spent at high five. Mrs Paine was assisted in the reception by Miss Carrie Paine and Miss Rosalie Friendly. Those who were present were, Mrs Laura Earle, Mrs L G Adair, Mrs F W Prentice, Mrs Jas Hoffman, Mrs Samuel Nelson, Mrs Mark Bailey, Mrs Edward Bailey, Mrs W K Scarborough, Mrs H E Ankeny, Mrs R Booth, Mrs B L Bogart, Mrs Geo B Dorris, Mrs J R Krause, Mrs P B Kinsey, Mrs W H Hoffman, Mrs J C Church, Mrs C W Lowe, Mrs S M Yoran, Mrs H F McCornack, Mrs T B Luckey, Mrs J F Robinson, Mrs Emma Thompson, Mrs Fred Nolf, Mrs H Friendly, Misses Carrie Friendly, Margaret Kinsey, Hattie Nelson, Dee Ankeny.

Maple Lodge, Independent Order of Lions, will hold a social session in Frank's hall Monday night. A good program has been arranged and ice cream will be served.

A Waco county firm is advertising in Eugene for harvest hands at good wages. The wages paid for harvest hands over in that part of the state are usually higher than they are here, and every year large numbers of men go there from the Willamette valley to work. There is complaint of a scarcity of hands all over the state this year.

TOLD IN SIDE HEADS

TO COTTAGE GROVE.—A delegation of Odd Fellows went to Cottage Grove on the 2:05 train to attend a meeting of the Cottage Grove Lodge No 68 to be held there tonight. The occasion will be a reception in honor of Uncle Samuel Garoutte of that place who has been a member of good and faithful standing for over 50 years. A jewel medal also will be given him and the presentation speech will be made by J J Walton. The members from Eugene who went today are: J J Walton, C Dimond, H W Gossett, Dr L W Brown, J H Lamson, M Svarverud, C B Clement, J Root, S P Ness and H L Chilson.

A RUNAWAY.—Reuben Job, of Lewellyn, was in town with his family today, and when he returns home he will have quite an experience to tell his neighbors. While watering his team in the mill race this afternoon, he stepped out on the tongue of the wagon to fix a broken tug, when horses took fright and started to run. Mr Job was thrown headlong into the water and the horses, after circling around a couple of times in the race started out toward home on a dead run. They broke loose from the wagon after going several blocks and were caught out in the west part of town.

HIWATHA RICH STRIKE.—Cottage Grove Nugget: S E Russell, of the Hiwatha Mining & M Co., under date of July 14th, reports a richer strike being made in the Hiwatha than anything yet discovered on that property. While driving in the new drift, commenced last month, he reports that last Monday, about 70 feet from the mouth of the tunnel of breaking into a large streak of ore as rich as anything yet discovered in Hiwatha, the ore panning coarse and fine gold without motoring.

WORKMEN DELEGATES HOME.—The delegates from Eugene lodge, A O U W, returned last night from Portland where they attended the grand lodge. Prof B J Hawthorne, one of the delegates, informs the GUARD that the meeting was a very successful one, the Supreme Master Workman being present and presiding over the sessions. Prof Hawthorne says the prospects for the lodge in Oregon are at present exceedingly bright.

DIED.—Junction Times: At Los Angeles, California, July 8, 1902, Mrs J E Tipton, aged 69 years, 8 months and 8 days. She had been sick for several months and although death was expected, it left sad hearts to mourn her departure. Mr and Mrs Tipton formerly resided on Lake Creek, whose many friends and neighbors will regret to learn of her death.

C. L. SCOTT INJURED.—Yesterday evening while trying to "round up" a cow at his home in Springfield, C L Scott, bookkeeper at the First National bank, met with a serious injury. The horse which Mr Scott was riding slipped and fell, at the same time catching the leg of the rider under him. Mr Scott is able to be on duty today but is compelled to use crutches.

FOR SALE.—Quarter section of good timber land, 14 miles from McKenzie river, conveniently located for logging. Estimated to carry about seven million feet of good yellow fir. Address or call on J W Fountain, Wallerville Or.

JOHN WILLIS BAEZ RESIGNS.—John Willis Baez, secretary of the national Christian Endeavor Society, has resigned his position to accept one as assistant secretary of the Presbyterian board of home missions. He will take up his new duties on October 1.

CHILD'S ARM BROKEN.—The six-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs Levi Castelman, of Jasper, fell off a manger in the barn Thursday evening, breaking her right arm and dislocating the elbow joint. Dr L W Brown was called and attended the injuries.

ASHLAND WON.—The Ashland baseball team won from Grants Pass again yesterday by the score of 17 to 11, thus winning the $500 purse offered for the best two games out of three. The first game was won by Ashland by the score of 7 to 5.

WANTS A DIVORCE.—W A White, the man whom Floyd Vaughn stabbed here a year or two ago has sued his wife at Salem for divorce. Cause for the legal separation is desertion.

BREVITIES.

Quite a number of our people will go down to Albany tomorrow to visit the encampment.

The iron pillars for the front of the new McClung building were placed in position today.

The excelsior factory is being painted a dark red color to conform with the color of the other factories in the manufacturing district.

The following divinity students left for appointments this afternoon: W T Matlock, Halsey; F E Billington, Hebron; M F Horn, Holley.

The Albany Democrat thinks that after all blue beats shakel color. It will be difficult to make anything take the place of the "boys in blue."

A crowd of Eugene's young folks will take an excursion to Albany tomorrow. About twenty have already signified their intention of going.

Rev F M Burg, an Adventist, preached in Frank's hall last night and at 11 a.m. today. Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. he will also preach.

A few shocks of hay were destroyed by fire in S P Shadden's field near the railroad yesterday afternoon. Sparks from a locomotive caused the fire.

The Oregonian correspondent at Camp Williams under date of yesterday says: "The Fourth Regiment band put in the morning practicing, and the music cannot be beat."

This morning's Salem Statesman heads the article about Sheriff Withers arresting Murderer Bert Heaton at Well, Nev, this way: "Withers a sleuth," which is about correct.

Brownsville Times: Elder W T Matlock, of Eugene, was a pleasant caller at the Times office Monday. He has accepted a call from the Christian church of this city to preach here on the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Yesterday's Roseburg Review: Mrs W A Elkins left for her home in Eugene this morning after a short visit in Roseburg with her parents, Rev and Mrs W A Wood. She was accompanied by her little sister, Miss Anna, who will be her guest for a brief time.

Cottage Grove Nugget: Mrs Laura E Skinner, of Boston, Mass, has purchased the McKinnon residence east of the railroad track. Mr McKinnon and wife are visiting friends at Eugene for a few days prior to departing to San Jose, Cal, where they will take up their permanent residence.

Ashland Town Talk: Maj J L May, of Chief Dispatcher Morris' office has taken a 30 days' leave of absence and has left Ashland to attend the national guard encampment at Albany. Maj May is one of the most efficient and well known officers of the state guard. After the encampment he may take a trip to the Eastern states. His family will visit the militia encampment to witness the military exercises.

Storms in the East.

DES MOINES, Ia, July 18.—Reports of heavy wind and rain storms all over the state were received at the Weather Bureau this morning. Upwards of two inches of rain fell in many localities, and near Edwille it amounted to a cloudburst, nearly five inches of rain being reported. It caused the Des Moines River to again rise rapidly, nearly three feet rise being already reported, and it is rapidly nearing the danger point. Trains on the Burlington are delayed. At Carroll the daughter of George Simons was killed by lightning.
