AN OLD-TIME RESIDENT.

Mrs. Thatcher Who Left Eugene 30 Years Ago Is Here.

Those who lived here 30 years ago will probably remember Mrs. Thatcher, a music teacher, who resided in the old brown house near the south end of Olive street. She left here for California 30 years ago and returned last night, for the first time since she left. She called at this office today and stated that her visit here is like the awakening of Rip Van Winkle from his long sleep, so great has been the change in the city since she left. She said that not a single place is recognizable to her and that she has only met one person that she knew when she lived here and that was Judge H R Kincaid.

Mrs. Thatcher is on her way from Chico to Portland. She is in very poor circumstances, and, for the purpose of helping to pay her fare to Portland, she will sing a few songs on the streets this evening, and she hopes the people will contribute liberally. She has been suffering from paralysis, not being able to use her right arm at all, hence unable to work for a living.

LETTERS TO LOVED ONES

Should be written on good, tasteful stationery. It adds immeasurably to the acceptability of the message, is a compliment to the recipient, and a credit to the sender.

Cheap...

Trashy, letter paper is inexpensive in this age, and betrays lovelessness and lack of taste in the person using it.

Pretty...

And stylish paper, white and in tint, embossed or plain, at very low prices for such nice things.
