WORK TO BE RESUMED.—The Southern Oregon Oil Co. expect H. Hirschberg, the Independence banker and oil promoter, in Ashland within a few days, when, it is expected, a contract will be closed with him for the promotion of drilling the company's well, on the Alford place, to a depth of 2,500 or 3,000 feet says the Ashland Tidings.

The conditions of the contract are not made public, but the company will make concessions for the use of their plant, which Mr. Hirschberg has virtually accepted. R. M. Foster and Dr. Fred Marsh are now with him at Independence, pending some repairs at the Umpqua Valley well and should arrangements be perfected here they will join him in the work.

WESTERN LANE CHOPS.—In the weekly crop bulletin sent out by the weather bureau at Portland the following is from O. A. Potter, at Alpha, in the western part of Lane county: "Weather warm; haying nearly done, crop better than expected and above the average; corn has good color and is making good growth; also potatoes. Fungi are setting in their destructive work on apple and pear trees in nearly all western Lane county."

LOST.—A blue silk umbrella. Finder kindly return to 444 Willamette to street. Mrs. Minnie Washburn.

BREVITIES.

The corner stone of a new Christian church was laid at Pendleton Sunday.

Glen O. Powers, the new postmaster at Blue River, has received his commission.

Nearly all the hops of the present crop in Clackamas county are reported to have been contracted for.

Yip Hay, a Chinese murderer from Alaska, committed suicide at Seattle by strangling himself with a shoelace.

Wm Van Buren, the painter, had a stroke of paralysis Saturday, effecting an entire side. We understand he is improving.

In the writup of the Price-Kanoff wedding in yesterday's GUARD we should have stated that it occurred at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Sovern instead of Geo Sovern.

During the existence of the Louisiana lottery the late D. T. Fritchard once drew a prize of $15,000. The value of his total effects after death amounted to a little over $50.

The second-story windows of J. H. McClung's new brick were placed in position today. The work so far as it has progressed indicates that the building is to be one of the very finest in the city.

The engagement of Dr. J. W. Geary, a prominent physician of Burns, and Miss Phoebe Kelley, the accomplished daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Harrison Kelley, of the same town, has been announced.

Jacksonville Times: Dr. DeBar will leave for Eugene soon to make preparations for the residence of his family in that city. They will live there during the University year which begins in September.

Mr. Shook, contractor of the new agricultural hall, at Corvallis, discharged one of the plasterers, brought from Portland, on account of his incompetency, and immediately all the other plasterers stopped work and he had to secure new help.

Albany Democrat: Eugene's street fair will begin September 24 and end September 27. It is being gotten up on an elaborate scale and will be the finest thing ever presented in that city of this nature. There will be a contest for the carnival queen in a few days.

Albany Democrat: Several of the 110 Albany people having claims in Crook county left this morning by the way of the Lebanon wagon road, to prove up on their claims. Quite a number are going earlier than necessary in order to combine pleasure with business.

Roseburg Plunderer: Frank Gorell, the victim of the deplorable Millwood ridge disaster, we are sorry to learn, is in a very precarious condition, yet hopes are entertained for his recovery. It was the intention to remove him to his home from Millwood yesterday.

Beaty Bros, moving picture show is billed to appear at the opera house on Tuesday, August 5th. The advance man is in the city today. They advertise themselves as the "Kinescope Kings of the World." This show is highly spoken of in the towns through which they have passed.

Workmen began tearing the front out of the Hotel Eugene this morning. T. N. Segar, the retired landlord, also began removing his furniture and fixtures from the premises. An entire new front and modern arrangements will be put in as soon as convenient in order that Mr. Renshaw may begin business in "The Smokey" by September 1st if possible.
