In Memoriam.

Elise Kelly was born on the 13th day of July, 1875, at Creswell, Lane county, Oregon, and died Friday, the 11th day of July, 1902 at 10:30 a. m. at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Mason, at Alma postoffice, Lane county. Her death was caused from heart failure from which she suffered one week. The Lord has removed from us one of our choicest flowers that can never be recalled again. Elise was loved by all who knew her.

Elise has gone, so good and true, why should we grieve for her? For she knows not how we loved her. Never more will we, no never, see those laughing eyes of blue. Mother, brother, sisters, who were so dear to her, when that there's a place no one can fill but Elise. But her dear face is still with us and her voice we remember so dear. Her many friends have oft times seen her with her proud, sweet winning ways, speaking and looking so good and true. How can we help but grieve for her? But she's gone forever, yes forever, and our grief we should forbear, in that great joyful day of meeting there will be no sorrow there. Elise's bright life shines on forever, but we still see her though she's gone; we will forget, no never, in that dark and lonely dawn.

A DEAR FRIEND.

BREVITIES.

Don't forget the ice cream social in the Park tomorrow night. The Salem Central Labor Union has fixed a schedule of wages to be paid for unskilled labor to members of the union in Salem at $1.75 per day for ten hours' work.

William Nixon, of Seattle, tried to win the affections of a variety actress by representing himself as Tracy, the outlaw. He was badly battered by several policemen, who found out his identity after they had him in the cooler.

First Warden J. T. Jones, of the Oregon penitentiary, created a stir in official circles at Salem yesterday afternoon by giving out an interview, in which he differed radically from his superior officer regarding the payment of the reward for the return of Merrill's body. He contends that the whole amount offered for the capture and return of Merrill, $1500, should be paid. Superintendent Lee offers Mrs. Waggoner only $300.

PENALTY FOR SETTING FIRES.

Governor Geer Issues Annual Proclamation on the Subject.

SALEM, July 29.—Governor Geer has issued his annual proclamation warning against setting fires that may spread to timber, fences or crops. The law on the subject provides a fine of $20 to $1000 or imprisonment from three to twelve months for maliciously setting a fire which shall destroy the buildings, crops, fences or timber of another. If the fire be set without malice and yet destroy such property, the person setting the fire is liable to a fine of $10 to $100. Any person setting fire to a wooded country or forest owned by the United States is liable to a fine of $1000, or imprisonment for one year, or both fine and imprisonment. In all cases one-half of the fine is paid to the person who first furnishes the information to the district attorney.

TOLD IN SIDE HEADS

REPORTED SALE OF RAILROAD.—Ashland Tidings: Reports, which seem to be quite well authenticated, are to the effect that the Jacksonville railroad has been sold and will be extended several miles to the west of that town for the purpose of tapping a large body of timber land. The new owners are J. W. Williams and other capitalists of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mr. Williams is well known in Ashland, having spent several months here last winter, and he with his associates purchased some time ago 1500 acres of timber land, and bonded more, west of Jacksonville. The extension of the railroad and the opening up of this fine body of timber will mean much to Jackson county.

BOUGHT A FARM.—Corvallis Times: Clarence Koon, who arrived in Corvallis several months ago from Minnesota and has since resided on the Hogg place, has purchased a farm. The place is situated two miles east of Junction and 12 miles distant from Eugene. It comprises 300 acres and it is understood that the purchase price was something less than $9,000. Mr. Koon is to occupy the property this fall. He is well pleased with Oregon, especially with the Middle Willamette valley.

SOCIAL POSTPONED.—The lawn social to have been given Wednesday evening by the W. R. P. L. in connection with the band concert has been postponed until Friday evening on account of the band concert being postponed until that time.

SCARLET FEVER.—The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Offutt, residing at 324 High street, has the scarlet fever. Acting Chief of Police J. B. Stiles today put the quarantine flag in front of the residence.

LEAGUE BASEBALL.—At Portland: Helena 6. Portland 8. At Seattle: Seattle 4. Tacoma 2. At Spokane: Butte 12. Spokane 1.

DIED.—At Pleasant Hill, July 30, 1902, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Callison. The funeral was held today.

DIED.—At Creswell July 25th, 1902, Miss Lily Zenker, aged about 14 years.

BORN.—This morning to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hies, on West Fifth street, a son.

HARRY WRIGHT.

The Ex-Convict is Wanted for Stealing a Team and Buggy.

The Salem Journal, after copying the GUARD's item concerning the whereabouts of Harry Wright, the ex-convict who is wanted for aiding Tracy and Merrill to escape from the penitentiary, says:

"The Salem officers have known of Wright's whereabouts for nearly a week, and in conjunction with Sheriff Withers, of Lane county, have been trying to capture the accomplice. Since the affair has been published it might be stated that Wright is wanted in Marion county for the larceny of a team and buggy from a Salem livery stable. A warrant was issued several months ago for the arrest of Wright on this charge."

THE SOCIAL REALM.

A surprise party was given to Ella and Ida Henderson at the home of Mrs. Pickard on West Fifth and Jefferson streets yesterday afternoon. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, after which refreshments were served by Mayme Pollock and Lloyd Pickard. Those present were: Ida and Ella Henderson, Mayme Pollock, Elsie Gosssett, Rhoda Green, Gracia Baker, Izzy Alley, Saule Warnock, Emma Miller, Beulah Kinney, Cleo Nock, Louise Wenger, Lena Day, Eileen Pickard, Archie Pickard, Lloyd Pickard and Mrs. Pickard.

This afternoon about 3 o'clock the members of the Thimble Club drove down to Cl and Mrs. S. P. Madden's beautiful suburban home near the river to enjoy their annual picnic, the occasion being the third anniversary of the existence of the club. They took their lunches along and a highly enjoyable time is anticipated.

Mrs. M. A. Brewster gave a very pleasant party last evening to the friends of her daughter, Miss Ella, in honor of the young lady's birthday. The evening was spent in parlor games and social chat. Fred Lamb was the lucky man at Tiddley Wink, and Miss Vera Wilson received the other prize. A luncheon was served. Those present were Misses Vera Wilson, Mary Gilbert, Julia Prior, Cora Gilbert, Alta Schneider, Mabel Poill, May Poill, Minnie Williams, Zella Good, Viola Gilbert, Ella Brewster; Messrs. Fred Lamb, Hartford Wall, Harry Straight, Leonard Straight and Oscar Brewster.

A dance will be given at the armory after the band concert tomorrow evening. The music for the occasion promises to be very good and a good crowd is expected.

Notice.

All Iowa people are requested to meet in the East Park in Eugene next Saturday, August 2nd, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization. By order of committee.

CHARITY !!!

It is supposed to begin at home, but often begins nowhere, and that is just where it should begin and end in business.

You don't want charity; you don't expect charity; and you don't get charity!

Charity is said to cover a multitude of sins. It certainly covers a multitude of business errors.

IF YOU BUY.

Less attractive goods or shop-worn things at higher prices, that is charity on YOUR part. If you are often disappointed because your wants are not promptly attended to; if you have a poor assortment to select from, and you continue to buy in the same slow old place, that is charity.

BUT YOU ARE NOT GETTING IT...

Any house that solicits your business for any but purely business reasons is asking charity from you.

We are not looking for Charity, and we don't believe you are.

We have gained the reputation of always having the best goods at the most reasonable prices.

To look around is to buy here.
