A Runaway.

Mrs H H Bell and daughter, residing in the western part of the city, hitched up their horse and buggy early this morning and drove to the residence of Prof I M Glen on East Ninth street to gather some blackberries. On arriving there Mrs Bell alighted from the buggy and took the bridle off the horse and put the halter on. The horse became frightened and ran away, dashing out East Ninth street across the railroad and on to Fairmount, where the girl, who staid with the buggy all this time, succeeded in running the horse into the fence and stopping it, no damage whatever having been done.

Bert Vincent, who lives on Hill-yard street near Ninth, saw the runaway. He resolved to make a heroic rescue and set out on his wheel after the rig but it was stopped before he had opportunity to carry out his good intentions.

Back From Deschutes.

I E Stevens, who with J G Stevenson, returned yesterday from the Deschutes country in Crook county, says they had a very fine trip. They went across the mountains via the Military wagon road and came back via the McKenzie route. While over in that country Mr Stevenson located a timber business over there is booming, the boom proving to be a veritable harvest for the locaters and crushers who are making lots of money. The timber over there is all pine and Mr Stevens says it is not nearly as good as the timber on this side of the mountains.

Meeting of Committee.

The committee appointed to arrange for the Eugene street fair met again yesterday evening. Several applications from people desirous of giving exhibitions for amusement were received and filed; with the committee on concessions. The committee has set the price of space at $1 per foot. Applications for furnishing musical entertainment have been sent in by the Cottage Grove band and the Fourth Regiment band.

Should Be Moved.

The hydrant imbedded in the cement sidewalk at the McClung corner should be removed along with the others that were located on the sidewalks. The ordinance recently passed compelling such hydrants to be moved applies to the one mentioned as well as the others. It is in the way of pedestrians and is a menace to their personal safety.

CHARITY!!!

It is supposed to begin at home, but often begins nowhere, and that is just where it should begin and end in business.

You don't want charity; you don't expect charity; and you don't get charity!

Charity is said to cover a multitude of sins. It certainly covers a multitude of business errors.

IF YOU BUY

Low attractive goods or shop-worn things at higher prices, that is charity on YOUR part. If you are often disappointed because your wants are not promptly attended to: If you have a poor assortment to select from, and you continue to buy in the same slow old place, that is charity.

BUT YOU ARE NOT GETTING IT... Any house that solicits your business for any but purely business reasons is asking charity from you.

We are not looking for Charity, and we don't believe you are.

We have gained the reputation of always having the best goods at the most reasonable prices.

To look around is to buy here.

Dog Fennel, That's All

A gentleman alighted from a Pullman sleeper yesterday afternoon when the north-bound train stopped at the station. His eye immediately caught sight of a little bunch of dog fennel in full bloom which was growing on the track. He pulled up his sleeve politely and stably crept under the car to pluck the pretty flower. With care he shook the dust from his little bouquet and hastened into the car to show his wife what a sweet flower he had found. A moment's listening assured the staid-by that she, too, was greatly pleased when she said, "Now, dear, why couldn't you find more?"
