Shipbuilders are constructing some mammoth schooners these times. A steel six-masted schooner of 7700 tons displacement is under contract to be turned out of an eastern yard by May next.

Elmore, the Astoria canneryman, who has made a million or more canning salmon, will vary his experience by canning asparagus. One hundred acres of tide land on Tillamook Bay will be used to grow the vegetable.

The Willamette river is so low, and the manufacturing plants take so much of the water at Oregon City, that the novelty of walking across the river on the exposed rocks on the brink of the falls may be experienced.

Two hundred and twenty bicycles have been seized at Portland by deputy sheriffs thus far this year for riding the paths built by the county without the necessary tags. All but twenty were redeemed, that number remaining in the hands of the officers for lack of the two and one-half dollars each for tax and cost.

Dr Forward of Cleveland, Ohio, is rightly named. He succeeded in getting in debt $478,587, and in bankruptcy court claims assets of only $4225. He was an oil promoter and found victims in all classes of society. Of course he robbed the credulous and deserves to be passed through a penitentiary rather than a court of bankruptcy.

Some of us can stand it and not mourn, either. J P Morgan will not offer the securities of the new ocean steamship shipping trust for public subscription, at least not just now. J P is an old hand at the game. He knows that forbidden things are often sought with the greatest avidity. It is not probable that the steamship trust will refuse two dollars for what cost them one.

The president of Willamette University doubtless thinks the students are the greatest need of that pioneer institution of learning. He is sending letters to friends of the university appealing for their support and interest in securing students. Willamette has not kept pace with its younger kindred institutions of learning. The president will have hard work in regaining lost ground.

The story is told that an Irish policeman of Topeka, Kansas, arrested a sleepwalker a short time ago, who had wandered away from home in his night clothing. "Surely you are not going to lock me up," said the sleepwalker. "I can't be responsible for the position you found me in. I am a somnambulist." "It don't make any difference what church you are a member of," said the officer. "You can't walk the streets of Topeka in your shirt-tail even if you belong to all the churches in town."

Portland custom officials are engaged in the pleasant task of examining a consignment of Chinese medicines. The invoice includes dried lizards, sugar pills as large as marbles, skunks' oil, ginsing root, and all sorts of queer appearing roots and fluids, and the aggregate value runs into several thousand dollars. Each case is carefully opened by the officials and unpacked piece by piece, in order to guard against the admission of contraband goods, or stuff that might escape its proper classification. Ten lizards are tied in a bundle, like so many dried mackerel, and it is said that these reptiles are ground up before being prepared as medicine.

ANOTHER TEST CASE.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes Are Positively Curable.

While the Fulton Compounds were under examination, one of the investigators went to one of the best known physicians in San Francisco and asked him to name a certain case of Bright's disease for a test. He named C. H. Allen of El Paso, a former conductor of the S. P. Co., as beyond human aid. Eight physicians had declared the case chronic Bright's disease. It was typical—albumen, casts, dropsy, sleeplessness, night sweats and usual weakness, pains and distresses. Patient went on the Compound June 5, 1901. We now copy from the written reports.

June 15—Improvement. Skin clearer. Color better. Albumen decreasing. Patient much encouraged.

June 25—Continued improvement. More ambitious. Albumen diminishing. Night sweats beginning to yield.

July 12—Not so favorable. Went to the country and began to bloat. Returned and feeling better, though not probably quite so well as last report. A favorable indication is the disappearance of the night sweats.

July 14—Dropsy again disappearing. Albumen getting less and less.

Aug. 1—Improvement continues.

Aug. 13—Patient claims he is nearly well. Continued improvement, and patient recommended for light employment. Double analyses by railroad surgeons in El Paso show as follows:

Spec. Grav.	1028
Reaction	Acid
Sugar	None
Albumen	Trace
Exam. for Casts	None

At this writing, January 13, 1902, patient is not yet entirely recovered, but is still on the treatment and getting better continually.

Medical works agree that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are incurable, but 87 per cent. are positively recovering under the Fulton Compounds. (Common forms of kidney complaint and rheumatism offer but short resistance.) Price, $1 for the Bright's Disease and $1.50 for the Diabetic Compound. John J.
