Portland Academy defeated Pacific University in a game of football at Forest Grove Saturday. The score was 6 to 0.

The gowns worn by Miss Georgia Harper in her production of "The Lyrio Queen" and "East Lynne" will be the grandest ever displayed in Eugene.

Miss Winnifred Hayes, niece of Mrs Phil Miller of this city and well known here, is to be married Wednesday, Oct 8, to J H LaMores at Portland.

J C McElroy's prize sheep were shipped to Roseburg this afternoon to be entered at the district fair. J C goes down Wednesday.

J F Callahan and family have moved into the property recently purchased on West Eleventh street, from Pleasant Hill. They bought the Gasman property.

A Salem man has raised this year about 20,000 bunches of celery, for which he receives an average of 5 cents a bunch by the wholesale, mostly from Portland dealers.

Bonus and his famous band play in Albany Saturday afternoon and return by special train to play at Salem Saturday evening. Prof W E McElroy will hear the Salem concert.

The grand opening of Conkerline & Wetherbee's new dry goods store in the elegant McClung building Saturday evening was the attraction for numerous visitors who came to admire the superb furnishings of the new emporium.

Brownsville Times: The students of the high school have organized a football team and propose to take no back seat during the entire season. They already have games scheduled with Albany and will extend invitations to meet the teams of all nearby towns.

"McCarthy's Mishaps" were added to here in Eugene when Manager Ross cancelled the date, which was Sunday evening, of the performance. He did not think it either profitable or necessary to produce Sunday evening amusements in Eugene, hence the cancellation.

The Gorton Minstrels arrived in their special car yesterday. They are a well dressed gentlemanly lot of men of enviable reputation as entertainers. Their band concert on the street this morning was applauded by the bystanders. They play tonight at the Parker.

The Southern Pacific has announced a reduction of 25 cents per hundred in the rate on apples from Portland and all points south to the Missouri river and Texas. The new rate is 75 cents per hundred. The new rate to Chicago and St Louis is 85 cents per hundred, a reduction of 15 cents.

A notable registration may be seen in the hotel arrivals at Hotel Smeede where Ex-Governor Z F Moody, Governor T T Geer and Governor-elect Geo E Chamberlain wrote their names on successive lines. They all came to attend the late Ex-Gov John Whiteaker's funeral. Governor Geer was accompanied by his wife.

Brownsville Times: Dr I W Starr has sold his fine residence property on Main street to Elman Powell, the price paid being $2,300. Mr Starr's family will go to Eugene to reside this winter where Chester is attending the University. The doctor has also bargained to sell his drug store, but the sale will not be consummated before tomorrow.

Mrs Jarvis, daughter of the late John Whiteaker, will remain in Eugene another week.

May Not Come.

The success that Mr Leroy and his company is meeting with elsewhere and the numerous applications for the attractions may be the cause of cancelling the date of his appearance here until a later time. Should this occur it is to be regretted, as the play, "Other People's Money," has been widely advertised and a cancellation would disappoint a great many people.

Social Tonight.

The friends of the Presbyterian church are cordially invited to be present at the social given tonight at the church by the Ladies' Aid Society.

THE WILLAMETTE PRESBYTERY

Outline of Sessions Which Begin Tomorrow Afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Willamette Presbytery of the Presbyterian church convenes in Eugene tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The sessions close Wednesday night.

The program for the afternoon session tomorrow will be a conference on evangelistic work. The discussion will be under three heads as follows:

First—"Evangelistic Movement in the Presbyterian Church."

Second—"Evangelism from a Scriptural Standpoint."

Third—"Every Minister an Evangelist."

It will be an open conference.

In the evening Rev Mr Reed, of Albany, the retiring moderator, will deliver a sermon.

Wednesday the Presbytery opens by devotional services at 9 a.m. After the noon hour the sessions resume at 1:30 and continue till 4:30, the evening services beginning at 7:30.

NOTES FROM THE UNIVERSITY

It has been decided by President Campbell that Villard Hall shall be decorated every Wednesday morning for assembly. Hereafter the custom has been to decorate for special occasions, but assembly did not come under this head. Now, however, Villard Hall will shine in its coat of ferns, leaves and flowers once weekly at least.

The Sophomores, who have been appointed to decorate, held a meeting Friday morning and perfected arrangements.

The meeting of the associated students called for today at 11:50 failed to materialize. Only about twelve students remained and as the constitution requires thirty for a quorum no meeting could be held.

The Treble Clef will hold its first rehearsal tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. in Miss Stinson's room.

Order of Lions.

Regular meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock sharp. A full attendance of officers and members is requested. Business of importance to come before the lodge.

N K BELSHAW,
President.

The Natron Sawmill.

H D Wagon, one of the promoters of the new Natron sawmill, informs a GUARD reporter that the work on the big dam across the slough for the log pond is about completed and that the work of building flood-gates will commence this week. The dam is 14 feet high and the pond will hold 3,000,000 feet of logs at one time. Work on the mill building will commence in a short time.

OFFER OF TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

Made for One Lot of Hops in Polk County—The Market in Salem.

Salem Journal, Oct 4: Best of hops are today 22 1/2 to 23 cents. The market is fairly active and prices are stiffening.

Kola Nels expressed the opinion today that hops will go to 25 cents before the season is over.

Waker Bros have an offer of 23 cents but the Journal has not been able to verify the proposition.

T A Livesley on Friday offered Dr Fink, of Dallas, 25 cents. He is a man who never contracts and always has a tight edge money product. Other buyers would take his hops at that price merely for the name of the thing.

Rally a Success.

The Sunday school rally at the Christian church yesterday was a grand success. The regular morning services were given over to a pleasing program rendered by the pupils of the school. A delightful solo by Mrs G L Lobdell was a feature of the exercises.

The rally was a material success adding quite a number to the already large enrollment of the school. $7.50 was collected and contributed to the fund being raised to erect a windmill on the Divinity School campus.
