MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the yellow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mr. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

That I must do something to regain my health. A friend advised me to try Wine of Cardui. I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement.

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will you or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Theodor's Duck-Draught.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

A Big Attraction Coming.

Of all the dramatic offerings to come to the Parker opera house this season none should attract more attention from the lovers of music and music than the forthcoming production of Weber & Field's burlesque, "Fiddle-Dee-Dee." If the press of the country can be taken as a criterion, "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" certainly must be a great show. "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" is a burlesque, it ran a whole year in New York City, six months at the Pan-American Exposition and 111 nights in San Francisco; that is surely a record.

One of the features in "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" is the Florida Sextette, which is said to be better than the original and twice as funny.

"Fiddle-Dee-Dee" is the brightest and most clever burlesque that was ever written and gives greater scope for dramatic action, and a whirlwind of fun. There are three comedians who rank with the best the world has ever seen, and to these three fall the duty to make you laugh, while two beautiful prima-donnas sing, supported by a chorus of forty pretty girls. Withal the performance is a triumph and should not be overlooked.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A T Hensley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50 cents at W L DeLano's drug store.

Luck in Thirteen.

By sending 13 miles Wm Spirey, of Walton Furnace, Vt., got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve that wholly cured a horrible fever sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures bruises, felons, ulcers, eruptions, boils, burns, corns and piles. Only 25c. Guaranteed by W L DeLano, druggist.

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr King's New Life Pills is," writes D H Turner, Dempsieytown, Pa. "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infalible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at W L DeLano's drug store.

Beliefs About the Rainbow.

In many countries the rainbow is spoken of as being a great bent pump or siphon tube, drawing water from the earth by mechanical means. In parts of Russia, in the Don country, and also in Moscow and vicinity it is known by a name which is equivalent to "the bent water pipe." In nearly all the Slavonic dialects it is known by terms signifying "the cloud siphon," and in Hungary it is "the pump." "Nosh's pump" and "God's pump." The Malayan natives call it by the same name that they do their banded water cobra (nasheta), only that they add "bobo" (meaning double headed), the equivalent in our language being the "double headed water snake." They tell you that the bow is a real thing of life, that it drinks with its two mouths and that the water is transferred to the clouds through an opening in the upper side of the center of the great arch.

In the province of Charkov, Russia, the rainbow is said to drain the wells, and to prevent this many are provided with heavy, tight fitting stone platforms. In the province of Saratov the bow is said to be under control of three angels, one of whom pumps the water, the second "feeds" the clouds and the third sends the rain.

Man, Woman and Love.

In one of his books Max O'Rell, the witty Frenchman, gives the following advice:

"If you are bald, never make love to a woman taller than you. Looked at from below, you are all right."

"Never let your ladylove see you without a collar; no—not even the very wife of your bosom. A man's head without a collar is like a bouquet without a holder."

"Never marry a woman richer than you, one taller than you, or one older than you. Be always gently superior to your wife in fortune, in size and in age, so that in every possible way she may appeal to you for help or protection, either through your purse, your strength or your experience in life. Marry her at an age that will always enable you to play with her all the different characteristic parts of a husband—a chum, a lover, an adviser, a protector and just a tiny suspicion of a father."

Stories of London Weather.

The Manchester Guardian tells a good story of the weather. The scene was a Strand omnibus. A sudden sky was overhead, the rain poured down uncompromisingly, and was under foot. A red capped Parsone, who had been sitting near the dripping driver, got down as the conductor came up. "What sort of chap is that?" asked the driver. "Don't yer know that?" answered the conductor. "Why, that's one of them Indians that worship the sun!" "Worship the sun?" said the shivering driver. "I suppose 'e's come over 'ere to 'ave a rest!"

This recalls the reply given on one occasion by an eastern potentate to Queen Victoria, who asked him whether his people did not worship the sun. "Yes, your majesty," said the oriental, "and if you saw him you would worship him also."

A Most Wonderful Fact.

William Lyon, a London actor of the latter part of the eighteenth century, once offered to wager that he could repeat every word in a Daily Advertiser at the next morning's rehearsal. Accordingly, the next morning his opponent ridiculed him for bragging upon his feats of memory. Lyon forthwith handed the paper to a judge agreed upon, and notwithstanding the want of connection between the news items, editorials, stories and advertisements, he repeated every word of the entire paper from beginning to end without the least hesitation or mistake.

A Cheap Pleasure.

Seedy Individual—I would like to get measured for a suit.

Fashionable Tailor (suspiciously)—At about what price, sir?

Seedy Individual—That makes no difference.

Fashionable Tailor (as before)—We generally require a deposit from unknown parties.

Seedy Individual (easily)—I do not wish you to make the suit. It has been so long since I enjoyed this experience that I simply wish to get measured.

Witely Appreciation.

"There's one thing I will say about Charlie," said young Mrs. Torkins; "he has a lovely disposition even if he doesn't always display it at home."

"How do you know?"

"I heard some of his Wall street friends talking about him. They say he is a perfect lamb."—Washington Star.

Rest.

When a razor refuses to take an edge, the barber stops fussing with it, lays it away, and in a little while, no one knows just how, the edge returns. If we treated our brains and our bodies that way instead of wearing them out on the grindstone, it would be a good deal more sensible.

An Impression.

"Now, I have an impression in my head," said the teacher. "Can any of you tell me what an impression is?"

"Yes, I can," replied a little fellow at the foot of the class. "An impression is a dent in a soft spot."

Painfully Honest.

Prude—Well, why did you refuse him after you had taken him away from the girl he was engaged to?

Flirt—Oh, I haven't quite reached the point when I will receive stolen goods.

The rack was one of the instruments of torture in the olden times. The music rack is usually used for the same purpose today.

Encyclopaedia for Sale.

The GUARD offers a ten-volume Americanized Encyclopaedia Britannica for sale. There are 6902 pages of the work, 96 colored maps of states and countries and numerous illustrations. It is durably bound in sheep and has been well used.

In this condensed form of the Britannica special pains were taken, as the name indicates, to give special preference to subjects of American interest, at the same time pruning long and prolix articles of all superfluity, though not materially curtailing the presentation of desirable facts.

This encyclopaedia has been in constant use for several years. It is offered for sale for the sufficient reason that the office has been supplied with a complete Britannica with a five-volume 'American supplement.'
