OUR TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE.

The lively interest taken by our readers in the neat little telegraphic service furnished them is full compensation for the increased expense of publication. It is carefully selected and includes the most important happenings of the day.

These dispatches are received in Eugene about 2:30 in the afternoon. That is nearly six o'clock in New York City, while it is eight o'clock in London. Our motto of "Today's news today" is entirely appropriate for Pacific Coast evening papers when telegraphic news is taken into consideration.

HOW THEY GOT A CROWD.

The "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" Company at the opera house tomorrow night advertises forty pretty and vivacious young ladies as the principal attraction. It is a reminder of a troupe that starred one night in the old Lane's Hall on Eighth street. The billboards and street literature gave no promise of lack of wardrobes for the occasion, yet the magic words prominently and often displayed on their bills, "No ladies admitted" caught the town, at least the male part thereof. Never before, perhaps, in the history of Eugene did so many lodge and committee meetings and business appointments call the adult male population from the fireplaces and companionship of their families as on that particular evening. Long before the show commenced, eyes standing room was at a premium.

Did they do anything? Yes! Took in a dollar a head at the door and wore plenty of clothing. The company tomorrow night, though, is legitimate and proper, and depends on its merit for an audience.

The coalmine owners say they will not recognize labor organizations in dealing with employees. Yet they are in a trust themselves. Consistent? No! But who expects consistency in the scramble for wealth or existence? It is the devil take the hindmost. It rests with our lawmakers to compel justice in these monstrous combinations of our latter-day civilization both to employer and employee.

President Roosevelt says he is out for a hunt and doesn't want to be bothered with business. That all depends on the kind of business and the man that talks it to him. You may be sure that any talk as to his prospects for bagging some very big game—the presidency in 1904—will be eagerly listened to coming from the right source.

It appears that the Hawaiian election hinged on police regulation of vice. The full-blooded native elected stood upon a platform of open saloons all night, permission of gambling and houses of ill-fame. There was no Democracy or Republicanism about it, except in mere names.

Sheriff Withers shows the true spirit by refusing to make claim for the Heaton reward. He says what he did was in the line of duty and was done without expectation of reward.

The Sultan of Morocco does business in case of insurrection. Twenty heads of an unsuccessful following adorned the city gates at Fez the other day. The Molinez trials cost the county of New York about four hundred thousand dollars. The defense cost about seventy-five thousand.

It is understood that the location of President Roosevelt's camp while he is hunting bear down in Mississippi will be kept secret. He may escape the interviewer but not the kodaker. The latter individual can shoot from long range.

Mandarin, an elephant, was executed at New York Saturday. He got unmanageable and a two-inch hawser was thrown around his neck, fastened to a steam winch, and he was choked to death.

HE WAS ABSENT-MINDED.

"Rather absent-minded, isn't he?" "Extremely so. Why, the other night when he got home he knew there was something he wanted to do, but he couldn't remember what it was until he had sat up over an hour trying to think." "And did he finally remember it?" "Yes, he discovered that he had wanted to go to bed early."

Notice.

Having disposed of a one-half interest in the business heretofore known as Moon's Feed Store, at No 65 East Ninth street to F B Tingley of this city, I take this opportunity of thanking my many friends and patrons for their confidence and trade for the past three years which has enabled me from a very modest beginning to build up a very nice little business here in both to the satisfaction, I hope, of both myself and patrons. The business will be conducted as formerly and the same careful, courteous treatment accorded to all, and our aim will be to please. Hoping that we may merit as liberally of your trade in the future as in the past, we are very truly yours. W S MOON, F B TINGLEY.

I was suffering agonies from piles and was taking morphine to relieve me, when on the advice of a friend, I procured a bottle of your Ferris Pile Specific and took a tablespoonful at night and another in the morning. At half past twelve, my wife gave me another big spoonful, when my pain all stopped. In two days I was able to attend my regular business, relieved. It was simply a cure. Yours truly, JULIUS FERRIS, Helena.
