George Smith, colored, has been sentenced to hang at Portland, December 19. He killed his white wife several months ago.

One of the many features of "Fiddle-Dee-Dee" is the beautiful chorus, whose singing and dancing makes the heart glad and lightens the burden of life.

O Morrow, of Wendling, an employe in the mills at that place, was brought to the hospital this morning suffering from several bruises and contusions which he received yesterday while handling logs on the deck of the mill. He is not seriously hurt.

Gen Owen Summers, the colonel of the famous Second Oregon Regiment in the Philippines, has been made commander-in-chief of the Spanish-American War Veterans of the United States to succeed Col P H Savage, resigned. The Veterans have 125,000 members. Headquarters will be moved to Portland.

The November issue of the Eugene High School News comes to this office much improved in appearance over the October number. It contains some very clever artistic department heads, original with the members of the school, Misses Wheeler and Zumbach. The stories and notes by correspondents show an interest that is wholesome in the life of the school.

In the last issue of the Oregon Weekly, the editor of that paper criticizes Congressman Tongue and differs with that gentleman in some very essential points made in his address before the student body last week at assembly. It takes nerve to do a thing like that. The point made by the editor was that we should not always take things said by prominent men as things that are true. They might be mistaken on subjects just like other mortals.

The Friendly residence at 657 Willamette street was very elegantly decorated this afternoon—the occasion being the entertainment of the Ladies' High Five Club in honor of Mrs H B Miller, by Mrs S H Friendly and daughters. Flowers from the yards and hothouse, vines of smilax and potted plants lent an air of enhanced natural elegance to the event.

The dining tables were things of beauty without doubt. The hostess was ably assisted during the afternoon by her daughters, Misses Rosalie, Therese and Carrie. The luncheon table formed a unique suggestion of the trip to be shortly undertaken by the guest of honor to the far off Chinese waters.

From a beautiful centerpiece of chrysantheums there were fastened red, white and blue ribbons—on one end of the table to a miniature train of cars and on the other to a ship, suggestive of ties to the home country which Mrs Miller always feels wherever she is, and of her trip. The members of the club present were: Mesdames Geo B Dorris, H E Ankeny, Geo Lilley, F W Osburn, Hugh Thompson, Minnie Washburn, J S Luckey, T G Hendricks, Prof Howe, F G Young, Cal Young, D A Paine, F W Prentiss, E O Potter, Miss Dee Ankeny. The guests were Mesdames John Kelly, B L Bogart, S M Yorlan, L N Roney, Laura Harris, Geo Kelly, Theresa Jackson, J E Bronaugh, and Misses Laura and Winnie Miller.

The regular meeting of the Thimble Club was attended this afternoon at the home of Mrs Waldo Cheshire, at 790 Willamette street. The membership enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess very much. She was assisted in the service of dainties during the luncheon hour by Mrs J W Kays. The roll call of the members brought out some very trite quotations as is the custom of the club. The needle work which the club engaged in is the finest which is now in vogue. The next meeting will be three weeks from today at the home of Mrs Alexander Cockerline.

Fiddle-Dee-Dee has been heralded as a jolly entertainment and will make good the promises, and those who miss seeing it will have cheated themselves out of a three hours' laugh.

ALBANY, Nov 13.—U C Carson was arrested in Albany yesterday on a warrant issued in Junction City charging him with the malicious destruction of property. Carson registered in Albany as U C Johnson. Shortly after being arrested in Albany Carson eluded the constable but was captured later in the day at Jefferson. It seems that Carson and a woman purporting to be his wife, who are doing the valley peddling small articles, became involved in an altercation with the proprietor of the Junction City Hotel, and out of revenge Carson and the woman before leaving the place smashed the furniture and out the bedding in the room they were occupying. Carson was taken to Junction last night.

Passed by Irving Lodge No. 79. I. O. O. F., at a Recent Meeting. At a recent meeting of Irving lodge, No 79, I O O F, held Nov 8, 1902, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, It has pleased the great Creator of the universe to remove from our midst our esteemed and worthy brother, Past Grand Allen Bond, and

WHEREAS, It is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be remembered. THEREFORE, Be it resolved by Irving Lodge, No 79, of the Grand Order of Oregon and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, that while we bow with humble submission to the ruler of the universe, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken from our midst.

RESOLVED, That in the death of Brother Allen Bond this lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed of this locality, whose utmost endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity, and one who was willing to be governed by the laws of our order, a friend and companion who was dear to us all. A citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to his fellowmen.

RESOLVED, That this lodge's heartfelt sympathy be extended to his children, relatives and friends in their sad affliction.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this lodge and a copy sent to each of the leading papers of Eugene.

Another Runaway.

Runaways seem to happen in bunches. The latest contribution to the "skedaddle heresie fraternity" was W J Warnock's team which became frightened yesterday afternoon at a passing delivery wagon on the northeastern portion of the city. The team ran down the alley, broke the tongue of the hack out, broke all the braces and springs about the rig, put the double tree in two pieces, got loose from the wagon, tore down the sidewalk on East Ninth street and ran one on each side of a telephone pole, tearing the harness all to pieces.

In the course of their rambles a load of feed, grain, etc, was distributed in all sorts of mud. The horses were not hurt in the least. Louis Warnock, the driver, had let them stand while he was away.
