High School Notes.

A special assembly was held this morning in order to give the school an opportunity to hear Supt. Adams of the Albany public schools. Mr. Adams and a party of teachers from Albany visited the city schools this morning and spent some time at the High School.

D. Becholt introduced Mr. Adams who spoke briefly on the necessity of an education as a foundation in life. His remarks were of much interest and to the point. At the close of his address hearty applause testified to the appreciation of the students.

The party from Albany consisted of: City Supt. Adams, Miss Norwood, Miss Redfield, Miss Baltimore, Miss Thrall, Miss Portmiller, Miss Stuart, Miss Yantis, Miss Smith, Miss Pease, Prof. Leatherman and Prof. Carrelton.

The following musical numbers were given at the assembly: Piano duet, Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Miss Sadie Ford and Paul Stauffer; vocal solo Miss Faith Lister.

The debating team held a trial debate this afternoon in which Roseburg's side of the question was taken by the E. H. S. debaters.

SOCIAL REALM.

Mrs. J. S. Luckey did the honors of hostess for the Sigma Nu fraternity boys last evening at her home. The evening was spent at high five, the pastime proving to be of more than common interest. In points, Miss Pearl Luckey won first prize for the ladies and Seth Kerron the first prize for the gentlemen. The members of the fraternity entertained were: Messrs. Willie Chandler, Louis Henderson, Clyde Payne, Ross Plummer, L. H. Watts, Geo. Eyere, Ray Goodrich, Joe Templeton, DeFoe Shirk, Seth Kerron, Claude Wright, Kirk Sheldon, Judge Hale, — Taylor, Condon Bean, Ernest Benn, Tom Hawthorne; the other guests were: Misses Rosalie Friendly, May Marshall, Ruby Hendricks, Lulu Renshaw, Mary Gray, Ella Dobie, Pearl Luckey, Gene Gray, Dollie Ankeny, Bertha Templeton, Mary Dale, Carrie Benson, Carrie Paine, Ada Hendricks, Vergil Noland, (Astoria), Mrs. Geo. Noland, (Astoria), Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Smith, Mrs. C. L. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Goodrich.

The week has grown to be incomplete without a record of some "doings" by the Beta Kappa fraternity. They appear regularly with social brilliance which is well grounded in merited popularity. Last evening was business meeting night and the decorum of a sage assembly had barely been assumed, nay, the president's rap with the gavel had hardly died away in the distance, when feminine footsteps were distinguished without. Business to the winds, new officers were of no consequence—let the ladies in and let mirth reign supreme. 'Twas done in a trice. Under the chaperonage of Mrs. C. W. Lowe, the young lady friends of the frat boys had congregated to spoil the business meeting and substitute a social frolic. The evening was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Lowe and the other visitors presented the fraternity with a beautiful burnt leather emblematic pillow as a token of their esteem.

The swirl of social functions for this week has been gay despite the Lenten sobriety which pervades the atmosphere. Yesterday afternoon one of Eugene's most popular matrons, Mrs. Emma Thompson, entertained at her home on Lincoln street. The party was given in honor of Miss Dee Ankeny, whose engagement to Mr. John Orth, of Jackson county, was announced by the hostess. The wedding will take place soon after Easter. The amusement of the afternoon was appropriately selected. "Hearts" occupied the attention and at the end of the fascinating game Miss Louise Yoran was declared the winner of first prize, a book of selected poems. The second trophy went to Miss Belle Brown. It was the famous picture of "Chilly Cupid." Refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Misses Stella Pitt Dorris, Dollie Ankeny, Rosalie Friendly and Ruby Hendricks. Following is a list of the guests: Mrs. H. E. Ankeny, Mrs. Geo. B. Dorris, Mrs. F. N. McAllister, Mrs. G. D. Linn, Mrs. Claire Willoughby, Mrs. Geo. Smith, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. C. H. Park, Mrs. L. L. Whitson, Mrs. Luke Goodrich, Mrs. C. M. Young; Misses Dee Ankeny, Dollie Ankeny, Sue Dorris, Cecile Dorris, Bennetta Dorris, Ada Hendricks, Belle Brown, Lulu Renshaw, Carrie Paine, Libbie Yoran, Louise Yoran, Bessie Kelly, Laura Miller, Carrie Hovey, Edith Hoffman, Rose Moyer, Maude McCully, Stella Robinson.

COLLEGE STUDENTS REIGN

BASKET BALL GAME.

The University and O. A. C. basketball teams met in contest royal a little after 4:15 o'clock this evening and at press time were battling in great style in the armory for the points of the game. A great crowd of spectators, mostly visiting students, thronged the galleries. College cheering was the order of the hour. Co-vallis has a big half-hundred rout. The score was 4 to 1 at press time. The game had been in progress fifteen minutes.
