SOCIAL REALM.

Subsequent to the routine of business in the bookish atmosphere of the Amacian society room of the High School, the members of that society last evening betook themselves to Frank's Hall and indulged in a very pleasant evening of social games and other modes of amusement. Those attending were amply repaid and enjoyed the evening very much indeed. Parlor games and dancing were employed.

Tonight in the armory occurs the ball to be given by the K. K. K., an organization of University young men. The affair promises to be a pleasant one and very swell.

Died.

J. N. Poindexter, pioneer citizen, and sheriff of Lane county for two terms, died at his home in Prineville, Crook county, Friday, March 20, of an abscess of the liver, aged 72 years, 3 months and 15 days.

J. N. Poindexter was born in Green county, Illinois, Dec. 5, 1830. Came to Oregon in 1850, locating on a claim near Eugene in 1851. Married Eliza Elvira McCord in Eugene, March 11, 1855. Worked at the blacksmith trade a number of years. Was elected sheriff of Lane county in 1872 and again in 1874. Removed from Eugene to Portland, where he worked for W. W. Eddy, in 1878, then to LaCamas, Washington, then to Prineville in 1893. Was county treasurer of Crook county from 1900 to 1902. Was stricken with paralysis of the left side four years ago, since which he had been partially helpless.

Six children living are: Mrs. J. C. Lemley, Hops, Idaho; Perry B. Poindexter Prineville; Mrs. Frank Padley, Lane county; Ora V. Poindexter, Prineville; John T. Poindexter, LaCamas Wash.; Frank L. Poindexter, Eugene.

LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS

Little Son of Harry Gray of Lorraine, Spent a Night Alone With His Dog.

The little nine-year-old son of Harry Gray, living four miles west of Lorraine, had a thrilling experience Saturday night and Sunday last. Mr. Gray went hunting Saturday and being persuaded by the little lad permitted him to go with him. After they had traveled some distance, Mr. Gray decided that he would take a certain route with the view of starting some game. The route Mr. Gray wished to take was a little rough for the boy, and so he mapped out a way for the boy to go a short distance where he expected to meet the boy in about fifteen minutes. He pointed out the course, designating a large dead tree as the place for the son to stop and wait for him.

STRAYED FROM COURSE.

The little fellow started out all right but it appears strayed from the course. When Mr. Gray reached the given point he found no sign of his boy. After waiting a reasonable time he started back to find him. He soon found his tracks and discovered that he had followed a trail into the woods. The father took the trail and followed as fast as possible but darkness came on and he was forced to return home without his boy. He secured help and lanterns and the search was continued all night. The next morning over forty men were on the hunt and the woods was searched in every direction.

FOUND SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Late Sunday afternoon the little boy was found tired and exhausted but still in good shape considering his age and the exertion he had undergone. When the boy left his father he had two dogs with him. One, however, deserted him and came home during the night, the other staying with his playmate until he was found. The incident occasioned much excitement in Lorraine and stirred the hearts of all the citizens.—Nugget.

Fell Through a Door.

Some time this morning between two and four o'clock, some one maliciously or otherwise shattered the large glass in the door of L. A. Overton's paint store at No. 38 West Eighth street. The night policemen discovered the broken door about four o'clock and roused Mr. Overton, who at once made an examination of the store to see if anything had been disturbed. He found nothing wrong except the safe door open, and he was pretty badly frightened for a moment or two until he saw that the safe had not been tampered with. It had inadvertently been left open the night before.

The person who broke the glass was perhaps drunk and fell against the door.

Mr. Overton says he will pay a liberal reward to anyone who will inform him who the miscreant was. It was necessary to send to Portland for a glass to replace the broken one.

The Frazer Iron Works is busy with the casting of the huge iron pillars to be used in the new opera house. They are monsters and will hold up the biggest audience Eugene can pack in the house.

MILLION DOLLAR MINING COMPANY

The Glenwood Mining and Milling Company of Cottage Grove Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation of the Glenwood Mining and Milling Company were filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday evening.

The incorporators are Herbert Eakin, D. G. McFarland, Geo. Meek, Queen, B. Louisa Leonard, Emil G. Lindstrom and Flugal Hinds, mostly residents of Cottage Grove, and the Bohemia mines.

The principal place of business is Cottage Grove, and the new company will operate in the Bohemia district in Lane county and Douglas counties.

CAPITAL OF MILLION DOLLARS.

The capital stock of the corporation is given at $1,000,000, divided into a million shares at $1 each. Three hundred thousand shares are set aside for treasury stock.

BROKERAGE AND BANKING.

The objects of the corporation besides engaging in the general mining business are to engage in the banking brokerage business.

Broke His Arm.

The little two-year-and-six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Myers, residing about 5 miles from Springfield on the McKenzie, fell out of small express wagon Tuesday morning and broke his left arm between the elbow and the wrist, says the Springfield News. He was brought to the home of his grandfather, J. J. Browning, in this place, and the disabled member was set by Dr. Van Valzah.

A Citizen's Pleat.

Editor Guard: How about that street sprinkler? Get out the street sprinkler. Where is the street sprinkler? Are we to have a miserable, dusty Sunday because the streets were not sprinkled today?

Dr. Collinge, the psychic vibration doctor, whose arrest in Portland the other day for seduction caused such a sensation, has been discharged from custody.
