Stole Some Tools.

Marshal Stiles and Constable Jack Smith had a lively chase after two youthful offenders of the law this morning. They were Tudy Boly and brother, Mertie, who are suspected of burglarizing a carpenter shop and appropriating various tools for their own use. The boys started by wagon and bicycle this morning for Harrisburg to cut balm wood, as they explained. The one in the wagon was taken in at Irving by the pursuing officers on wheels but the other gave a lively chase down the river road and was cornered at the river by Marshal Stiles and brought back to Eugene this afternoon.

They say they bought the tools at a second-hand store and are innocent of the crime.

Died.

Mrs. August C. Peterreins, died at her home, five miles west of Eugene, May 20, 1903, aged 73 years, 6 months and 24 days.

She was born in Germany Nov. 20, 1829; married in 1849 to Peter Peterreins; came to America in 1854; located in Philadelphia. From there they went to Minnesota in 1856 and came to Oregon in 1901, settling near Eugene where they have since resided. Besides her husband Mrs. Peterreins leaves six children, three of whom live in Oregon, the others in Minnesota.

The remains were shipped to Minnesota today, where burial will take place.

WILL VISIT THE SCHOOLS

G. A. R. Members Will Talk to Pupils Next Thursday.

Address Sent out to Comrades Living in Country Districts Announcing Them to Decorate Graves.

The following address has been mailed by J. W. Geary Post, G. A. R., of this city to every member of the organization in the country districts of the county inside the jurisdiction of the local post:

"Comrade—Memorial Day, May 30, will soon be here, and we wish that each and every Comrade will see that the graves of our deceased comrades that rest in cemeteries in your vicinity be decorated with a flag and the choicest flowers.

Kindly report immediately after Memorial Day the names, company and regiment, and also name of cemeteries where they rest and whether they are marked with monument or government headstones. (Those intending to come to Eugene could decorate the graves on Friday, the day previous to Memorial Day.)

"May 24th is Memorial Sunday, and we earnestly desire that all Comrades and families be with us to attend Memorial Services at the M. E. church at 10:45 a. m. It is our Commander-in-Chief's desire to make this the most complete Memorial Service of the G. A. R. ever held in the United States.

"Comrades, kindly lend us your aid in carrying out this noble work. Ascertain the number of flags needed and they will be furnished on application.

"Visit your schools on Thursday afternoon preceding Memorial Day. JOHN INGHAM, Post Commander. R. A. BARTLETT, Adjutant."

WILL VISIT SCHOOLS.
According to the custom of the G. A. R. and in pursuance to orders from National headquarters, through department commanders, members of the order throughout the country will visit the public schools on Thursday afternoon, May 28, and address the pupils upon the necessity of the proper observance of Memorial Day.

Those who will visit the several schools in Eugene are as follows: High School—A. C. Jennings, A. Yerington, Wheeler, H. D. Wylie and John Ingham.

Patterson school—S. R. Williams, O. Green, S. W. Taylor, T. N. Plank and G. L. McGinnis.

MORE TELEPHONE EXTENSION

Office Opened at Lowell - Farmers' Line Being Built—Springfield Exchange.

The Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company has opened an office at Lowell, on the Upper Willamette, the line having just been extended to that place from Unity bridge, a distance of about two and a quarter miles.

The construction crew is now at work on a farmers' line extending from Eugene to about five miles below toward Irving. This line will accommodate many residents along the road who will have connection with the Eugene office.

SPRINGFIELD EXCHANGE.
As previously stated by the Guard, the company is establishing a separate exchange at Springfield which will be in operation by the first of next week. The new exchange will start out with 35 phones. Our neighboring sister will then have first-class service.

ALL GAMBLING HAS STOPPED

The Mayor Orders the Games all Closed.

All open gambling games in Eugene were yesterday afternoon ordered closed by Chief of Police Stiles, acting under orders from Mayor Chrisman. As a consequence the rear rooms of the several saloons in the city were dark and quiet last night.

Several gamblers have already left town, but say they will return after a while when the games begin to operate again, which, they say, will not be long from now, taking previous similar instances as a criterion.

A. O. U. W. Attention.

You are requested to meet at your hall Thursday, evening, May 21, at 7:30 o'clock, to march in a body to the armory to attend the illustrated lecture of Rev. Howard Osborn. Visiting brothers invited.
