THE FOURTH OF JULY

Committees Appointed At a Meeting Held Last Night.

A Rousing Celebration Will be Held on the Nation's Birthday—Good Material on the Committee.

The executive committee having in charge the Fourth of July celebration in Eugene met last evening in Cockerline & Wetherbee's office and discussed various items which would make a good celebration. It was the sense of the committee that the celebration be made as entertaining as possible and that Eugene merchants should contribute the expense. A committee will call on business men Monday and hope to receive liberal treatment at their hands.

SUB-COMMITTEES.

The following sub-committees were appointed to have charge of various matters: Printing—F. E. Dunn, H. Gordon, H. L. Traver. Sports—H. A. Vincesat, Alf Walker, F. L. Chambers, Geo. Fisher. Music—F. L. Chambers, F. E. Dunn, Alf Walker. Another meeting of the committee will be held Tuesday evening to hear the report of the soliciting committee. F. L. Chambers, H. Gordon, F. E. Dunn, Alf Walker, Geo. Fisher, H. L. Traver, C. C. Hammond and Wm. Renshaw are the members of the executive committee, with A. T. Cockerline as chairman and C. A. Wintermeier as secretary.

In the Police Court.

This afternoon about 1:45 o'clock, John Hastings, who lives on the McKenzie and who was slightly under the influence of Eugene's "red-eye," tore down the auction sale flag in front of the famous notion store. Chief of Police Stiles, who is doing the auctioneering, ran out and collared him, taking him before Police Judge Dorris. He was fined $8, which was paid.

Commencement at U. O.

SOCIAL REALM

The dance for the benefit of the University track team last evening in the armory was a social success. The floor was quite well filled with the elite of college society and Svarverud's orchestra furnished good music for the occasion. The crowd was about the right size for complete enjoyment. The C. E. of the Christian church now have their business meetings the first Sunday in each month and the social meeting the Friday following. Last night being the time for the social a merry crowd of young people met at the church and proceeded to have a good time. Ping pong, dunch and other games helped to pass away the evening. A most agreeable surprise was given by Rev. McCallum in the shape of a large freezer of delicious ice cream, which was thoroughly enjoyed. Misses A. A. Miller, Fannie McCallum and Vinnie Knapp had charge of the evening's amusements. Mrs. Esson and Mrs. McCallum were guests of the society. Mrs. T. R. Imbrie, of Hillsboro, grand chief of the Rathbone Sisters, will make Helmetta Temple an official visit tonight, after which a banquet will be served. Mrs. Imbrie is accompanied by her husband.

Christian Alliance Meeting.

The Young People's Christian Alliance will hold its regular union service at the Presbyterian church, Sunday, June 14, at 6:30 p. m. Rev. Virgil Johnson, of Clatsop, N. H., will speak, and special music has been secured for the occasion. A good attendance from the Young Peoples' Societies is requested and all others interested in the work are cordially invited to attend. Vanilla, chocolate, strawberry ice cream; pineapple ice and frozen berries, at Otto's the leading confectioner.

Prompter Feed Delivery.

A. W. Haskell has purchased a second-hand Wells Fargo, express wagon and will do his own delivering from his feed store hereafter.
