REDUCED EXCURSION RATES.

To the Seaside and Mountain Resorts for the Summer.

The Southern Pacific Company has placed on sale at very low rates round-trip tickets to the various resorts along its line, and also, in connection with the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad to Detroit and the coast at Yaquina Bay, after market closes for return until October 1st.

Three-day tickets to Yaquina Bay, good going Saturdays, returning Mondays, are on sale at greatly reduced rates from all points Eugene and the pretty pamphlet among the people of the coast who are thinking seriously of coming west to settle. The booklet is entitled "Oregon, Washington and Idaho," Oregon coming first in the treatment of the subject matter. It is very nicely illustrated and printed, containing the best material possible to gather for the use for which it is intended. The railroads are doing a great deal for this part of the United States. They are doing their work well for it is to their interest. As a result these three states are growing rapidly, property is becoming more and more valuable.

The booklet can be had by enclosing four cents in stamps to W. E. Coonan, G. P. A., Portland, Oregon. Send it to your friends in the east and show them in a concise manner what the best country in the world is like.

JUNCTION ITEMS.

(From Junction Times.)
 Mrs. Wortman of Portland, arrived here Monday to visit her father Hon. C. W. Washburne.
 I. T. Nicklin spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland.
 A Glen Arbor correspondent in the Florence West is the authority for the statement that Commissioner Hill will not be a candidate for re-election.
 J. F. Mode, who sold out his ranch a few months ago to Mr. Cory, has bought the T. H. McGhee place, better known as the Arohart farm. The farm contains 140 acres. The consideration was $2100.
 Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Skipworth, July 6, 1903, a son. This is the first addition to the family and Mr. Skipworth bears parental honors with becoming dignity and grace. We extend hearty congratulations.
 Perry Richardson of Lancaster, met with an accident Monday on Front street which might have resulted seriously but fortunately he escaped with only a few bruises. The horses became frightened at a steam wood saw. He held them by the head, but as he is an old man and rather frail, he was knocked down and the front wheel passed over his hips. He suffered a good deal and it was some time before he could be taken home.

Harrisburg Items.

(From The Bulletin.)
 Messrs. Royce and Peterson, who own and operate the excelsior mills at Eugene, were here yesterday arranging to bank 2000 cords of balsam wood in this city, which will be cut on the Washburne island, south of here.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilse will attend Harrisburg tomorrow or next day. Their leaving will be regretted by a large acquaintance, but our loss will be Pleasant Hill's gain. We wish them abundant success in their new field.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Savage, of Wendling, visited the former's father, Mr. Jessie Bias, of this city Sunday.
 The firm of May & Setlers, of this city, stand second in the amount of business transacted by warehousemen in this county, according to the bond required of them under the new law.
 A considerable number of Harrisburgers attended the Fourth of July celebration at Eugene.

Thought it Was a Joke.

Portland, July 10.—While a dozen men stood idly by, laughing at what they thought to be a boyish joke, little Charles A. Parker, aged 11 years, who had fallen out of a boat near the Irving dock, struggled desperately to keep from sinking, but finally exhausted himself, and sank to the bottom of the river. His companion who had been in the same boat was powerless to help him, and men who stood by realized his danger too late to save his life.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, May 15th, 1903.
 Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of the timber lands in the state of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the public land states by act of August 4, 1892, Earl L. McNutt, of Blue River, Lane county, Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 5167, for the purchase of the following lands, to-wit: section 32 and 33 of township 10, s 4 e, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before J. J. Walton, U. S. Commissioner, at Eugene, Oregon, on Friday, the 7th day of August, 1903.
 He names as witnesses: Fella Sparks, Dexter Sparks, S. R. Scott and Carey W. Rhoads, all of Blue River, Lane county, Oregon.
 Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 7th day of August, 1903.
