A USEFUL PUBLICATION.

The Southern Pacific Company, aided by the O. R. & N., has issued an addition to their already expensive publications setting forth the attractions of the west and distributing the pretty brochure among the people of the east whose country seriously of coming west to settle. The booklet is entitled "Oregon, Washington and Idaho," Oregon coming first in the treatment of the subject matter. It is very nicely illustrated and printed, containing the best material possible to gather for the use for which it is intended. The railroads are doing a great deal for this part of the United States. They are doing their work well for it is to their interest. As a result these three states are growing rapidly, property is becoming more and more valuable.

The booklet can be had by enclosing four cents in stamps to W. E. Connor, G. P. A., Portland, Oregon. Send it to your friends in the east and show them in a concise manner what the best country in the world is like.
