EILERS' PIANO HOUSE DOING BIG BUSINESS

20 Dutchmen Out Stealing Pianos and Organs Can't Get Them Fast Enough—Customers Are Getting Rich Saving $100 to $200 on Each Piano They Buy.

While the business of other firms has either been at a standstill or considerably less than usual, our's has grown to such amazing proportions that the carload a week that we get does not begin to keep us in stock.

While we could make a "hot air" statement like the above and some might believe it, however unreasonable it might be, we expect the great majority to take it for what it is worth. The fact is there's "something doing" nearly all the time with us. We could handle more business, but we are pretty well satisfied because we satisfy our customers, both as to quality and price. Yesterday we sold a nice mahogany piano and today we installed a "peachero" of a Weber for Dr. Bennett. You see, people that know pianos always come to us when they want something that they can rely upon. "Goods just as represented or money back" is our war cry, and we are safe in saying it.

We buy right, we sell right, and no one can truthfully say that we do not handle as good instruments as can be found on earth. Still a few left that "will do to learn on." Consult your own interests and your pocketbook by seeing us about a piano or organ before you buy. Don't let anybody talk you out of it.
