Note and Comment

The editor of the Oregonian, to say the least, has the courage of his convictions. Commenting on young John D. Rockefeller, of Bible class fame, the Portland paper remarking of the report about Rockefeller's mind being feeble, adds that such "often predisposes a man to a religious life," and that "many young men who run to Bible classes and that sort of thing are good for nothing else." Just as if there were not numerous young men who "run" to "things" not taught by any means in Bible classes who are entirely good for nothing as factors of society. We confess to having little of the religious element in our nature—meaning so far as belief in the supernatural is concerned—yet from association with men believe there is little difference in the mental stamina of believers and unbelievers. The boldness of the unbeliever may lend some piquancy to his life not possessed by the believer, but associate with them uphill and down you find them stacking up about the same, good, bad, and indifferent.

The Russian populace means it. Friday night's revolutionary meetings in St. Petersburg were attended by probably sixty thousand men, standing wedged under the fall of wet snow on heads and shoulders. The government made no attempt at interference, an indication of its helplessness. Why the handful of real rulers do not placate the people by granting reforms, then honestly carrying them out, passes understanding. But it is the way of the tyrant. Some of them most likely will appreciate the seriousness of their mistake when they face the scaffold or a file of rifles.

OLD SORES SAP THE VITALITY AND UNDERMINE THE HEALTH

Old Sores that refuse to heal are a constant menace to health. They sap the vitality and undermine the constitution by draining the system of its very life fluids, and those afflicted with one of these ulcers grow despondent and almost desperate as one treatment after another fails. They patiently apply salves, washes, plasters, etc., but in spite of all these the sore refuses to heal and eats deeper into the surrounding flesh, destroying the tissues and growing to be a festering, inflamed and angry mass. The source of the trouble is in the blood. This vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are constantly being discharged into the sore or ulcer, making it impossible for the place to heal. It will not do to depend on external applications for a cure, because they do not reach the real cause, and valuable time is lost experimenting with such treatment the most they can do is keep the ulcer clean. Any sore that will not heal is dangerous, for the reason that it may have the deadly germs of Cancer behind it. A cure can be brought about only through a remedy that can change the quality of the blood, and this is what S. S. S. does. It goes to the very bottom of the trouble, drives out the poisons and germs with which it is filled, and purifies and builds up the entire circulation. By the use of S. S. S. the sore is supplied with new, rich blood which corrects the trouble, soon stops the discharge, and allows the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. also reinvigorates the entire system, and where the constitution has been depleted or broken down it quickly builds it up and restores perfect health. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers, and any medical advice you are in need of; no charge for either.
