Somewhat Late but Even Up

Some nineteen hundred years ago the Jews would have none of their Messiah, but crucified him. And here is how present day followers of the great character who preached a gospel of peace, of returning good for evil, ended up scores with the descendants of those crucifying Jews at Odessa.

Heads were battered with hammers, nails were driven into the bodies, eyes were gouged out and ears severed. Many bodies were disemboweled and in some cases petroleum was poured over the sick and hiding in cellars and they were burned to death.

Strangely enough, of all hate that engendered by differences of religion in regard to pure matters of belief where in the very nature of things there can be no absolute proof is, the worst, takes the most terrible means to satisfy its vengeance.

MISS ROOSEVELT HAD A CHAPERON

Editor Guard—"The average American girl desires to know whether the large party of which Miss Roosevelt was a member was mostly middle age, a few past, and while all felt a care and responsibility her special chaperon was Mrs. Senator Dabols, whose children in official circles in Washington are considered the model children. In the Congress of Mothers last summer Mrs. Dabols was superintendent of the children's room. There was, from the start of the party at San Francisco until they arrived at Oakland on return, the greatest harmony and good feeling. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure except the painful injury Mrs. Dabols received in the carriage wreck. Had Miss Roosevelt traveled with president's daughter had a chaperon on the long trip from Washington to China and return."—Society, Register, Oct. 29.

Permit me to explain to "the girl" out a chaperon, it is not impossible "she belongs to the set who drink from the finger bowl and are ignorant of good society usage," as her mother, from whom she inherited her fortune, was a Boston woman of culture and refinement, whose long line of ancestors were accustomed to the forms of "good society" before Eugene was on the map.

A MATRON OF EUGENE

Natron, Nov. 7.—We are having some fine weather now. Everybody is busy putting in their fall grain. Mr. Striplin, of Forest Grove, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. B. F. Smith, at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith are moving into their new house. Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Mabel Smith as teacher of Mount Vernon. Little Gracie Smith has been very low the last month with typhoid fever, but is now improving nicely. Mrs. M. B. Tallafero is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sadie Hill, of Jasper. Mrs. Dollie Keeney, of Eugene, is here visiting her mother, Mr. M. B. Tallafero. J. W. Smith has been working for R. C. Rankin, with his surveys up near Waldo Lake, but has returned home on account of the sickness of his little daughter. He reports that it is pretty cold up there, but that he likes the work.

Full of Tragic Meaning are these lines from J. H. Stimson of Casey, Ia. "Thinking what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: 'I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me.' Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At W. L. DeLano, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1. Trial bottle free."

False Rumor

The report Saturday on the streets that Will Muthersbaugh was dead was found to be untrue. Upon inquiry at the Eugene Dye Works, the place where they do first-class dyeing, cleaning and repairing clothes, it was found that he was only dying old clothes. 450 Willamette street is the place where they dye to live and live to dye. Ask for the Guaromatic roof paint which carries with it a 6 years' guarantee. Not only preserves the shingles, but is absolutely fireproof. Can be used on anything as it is pliable and will not crack. For sale at Jennings & Edwards. In talking machines I have all kinds, therefore must have the best. RANKIN
