

IT WAS A GREAT VICTORY

Corvallis People Lost Hundreds of Dollars

Teams Were Evenly Matched, But Oregon Saw Chance for Victory, Grasped It and Won

Oregon's victory over O. A. C. is still the topic of conversation on the streets of Eugene. The citizens are proud of the team and are confident that it will defeat Multnomah and Washington.

Perhaps two or three thousand dollars were left in Eugene by Corvallis people, the betting being heavy. O. A. C. supporters were so confident that their team would win that many bet all the money they had and all that they could borrow.

WHAT THE COACHES SAY.

After the game Coach Steele, of O. A. C., said:

"We are perfectly satisfied with the result. It was a hard fought game and the honors were even, but the university team had a golden chance to win and grasped it successfully. Both elevens played hard, clean football. Shorts has a good team and his men played hard, clean ball. Dolan played a fine game for Agricultural College, as did Williams and Rhinehart. We are naturally disappointed, but have no complaint to make."

Coach Shorts, of Oregon, said:

"The teams were very evenly matched. Corvallis made more yardage than Oregon did on straight plunges, but Oregon would have made more had not our runners fumbled repeatedly. It was not luck that won the game—it was football. Moore, who is always alert, saw a chance to win the game, grasped it and the result was a victory for the university. Latourrette displayed great generalship in running the team and George Hog put up a fine game at center. I never saw such a display of college enthusiasm as the university rooters furnished during the game and afterward. It was a fine spirit for a small university. The Corvallis people are game fencers, the university is a sportsmanlike winner."

RECORD OF THE TEAMS.

The record of the U. O. team for the season of 1905 is as follows:

- October 7, at Eugene: U. O., 15; Alumni, 5.
- October 21, at Berkeley: U. O., 0; California, 0.
- October 17, at Stanford: U. O., 4; Stanford, 10.
- October 24, at Eugene: U. O., 17; Chemawa, 0.
- November 4, at Salem: U. O., 11; Willamette, 6.
- November 11, at Eugene: U. O., 6; O. A. C., 0.

O. A. C.'s record is as follows:

- October 1, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 10; Alumni, 6.
- October 7, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 18; Chemawa, 0.
- October 14, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 58; Whitworth, 0.
- October 21, at Corvallis: O. A. C., 29; Pullman, 0.
- October 28, at Berkeley: O. A. C., 0; California, 10.
- November 11, at Eugene: O. A. C., 0; Oregon, 6.

The Portland Journal's sporting editor, before Saturday's games, predicted that O. A. C. would win by two touchdowns, that Multnomah would win from Willamette, that the Sherman Indians would win from Washington, and that California would defeat Stanford. The Albany Democrat made the very same predictions. They were wrong on every one of them.

Dramatic Reader

From Dr. Albert Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews, New York city: "Mrs. Baker understands her author, and therefore she makes her hearers understand as they could not hope to do without such marvelous interpretation. I have often thought, since Mrs. Baker read for us, that it would be a wonderful education, in standard poetry particularly, to hear her frequently and in a systematic manner. 'Elocution' too often lacks the brains and knowledge to interpret literature, wherein lies Mrs. Baker's measure's superiority over the average exponent of a somewhat discredited art."

DEATH OF M. H. SKINNER

Prominent Resident of Coburg Died Saturday, November 11th

M. H. Skinner, an old and prominent resident of Coburg, died at that place Saturday, November 11, 1905, from senile debility. He was 72 years old and had resided at Coburg for the past 20 years or more. A sketch of his life will appear later.

The funeral was held today at 10 a. m., with interment in the Coburg I. O. O. F. cemetery. A number of members of the local Masonic lodge, of which Mr. Skinner was also a member, attended the funeral.

CAMPBELL HOPS SOLD

The J. R. Campbell lot of 247 bales of 1905 hops has been sold to Horst & Co., of San Francisco, full delivery having been made this afternoon. They graded high, but went for a little under 9 1/2 cents. Too small a price, but the record-breaking crop of England this year has flattened out hop values.

SPRINGFIELD BUILDING ITEMS

J. V. Perkins and son, G. W., who arrived last week from Michigan, purchased half a block of the Washburne property on North D street, between Fourth and Fifth, and have started building three houses. We understand it is Mr. Perkins' intention to build four more houses for rental purposes.

J. J. Bryan informed a News reporter this week that he would build a large two-story building on the east of the News office, to be 42x60 feet. This will be one of the largest and best buildings in town. Mr. Bryan will use the entire lower floor for his grocery store and will perhaps add several new lines of goods.

Messrs. Kepner and Turner started the erection of a two-story building on the lot that they purchased recently from Melvin Miller. The building will be 20x58 feet, and when completed will be occupied by the News office.

F. Somers, president of the Eugene Planning Mill Company, was in Springfield Tuesday for the purpose of furnishing estimates on several of the new buildings that are to be erected.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

A theatrical event in which all the theatregoers of this city are much interested is the engagement Ruelle Knott in "When Knighthood was in Flower," at the Eugene theatre tonight. The interest does not centre wholly about the actress, Miss Knott, though she is one of the most talented on the American stage today, and one of the most beautiful, but is divided partly with her play, dramatized from Charles Major's beautiful novel by Paul Kester. The entire story as it is in the book is told in the play, and yet, while Mr. Kester has preserved all the charm and atmosphere of the novel, he has successfully avoided making his drama too discursive.

OIL TANK FOR JUNCTION CITY

S. P. Co. Staking Out Grounds—New Electric Light Plant

The S. P. Co. is making arrangements to install oil burners in all engines and reservoir tanks will be built at Junction, Roseburg and Ashland. The ground was staked out at Junction and it will be located just north of the Fourth street crossing east of the track. It will be a monster and will be 300 feet in circumference and 28 feet 2 inches in height. This will be the reservoir tank. A supply tank will be built just south of the water tank. A pumping station will be erected between the two tanks and the necessary pipes will be laid for besting the oil before it enters the supply tank. Work will be started as soon as the necessary equipment can be secured. It will require a large force of men to do the work.

The electric light plant is now in running order and "juice" was turned on for the first time Thursday evening. The lights are clear and bright and are up to the standard. The residence portions of the town will be wired as soon as they can be reached. When full capacity of the dynamo is reached a larger one will be installed, as it is the desire of the management to supply the whole town, as well as a suburb in residence.—Times.

Georgia Minstrels

Some way or other it always happens that the judicious advertiser succeeds. Judicious means many things. This can be said of many shows. Some attractions better never advertise. Managers who are not honest, whose advertisements mislead and whose shows disappoint, they had better let advertising alone.

The managers of Richards and Pringle's famous Georgia Minstrels endeavor to advertise nothing but what they can show. They are in a class by themselves, being the only recognized negro minstrels that play the first-class theatres and cannot afford to mislead their patrons.

Some show people are careless in their statements. They become so used to writing "biggest," "grandest," "greatest," "best" and "world's largest" that they can only think in superlatives. They mean to be honest, probably are. They are merely careless, and failure is the price of carelessness.

Go to the Eugene theatre on Thursday, Nov. 16, and judge if the Georgia are over advertised.
