Kicks the Man Down

The Washington correspondent of the Oregonian effects surprise that Congressman Hermann should choose a time to appear before the speaker of the house to take the oath of office when his appearance would be the least noted by fellow members. Did he expect Mr. Hermann, under indictment for a penitentiary offense, to march in with a brass band? Mr. Hermann is not seeking publicity these days as of yore.

As for his attending at once to drawing his $1000 mileage as noted by the correspondent, that is an indication that Mr. Hermann, however he has helped his friends, has not profited financially by reason thereof and was in need of his mileage, or at least some part thereof. It may be noted that several years ago the Oregonian's Washington correspondent ran after Mr. Hermann and got many favors from him. But it is the way of the world—get a man down, he does not lack getting kicked.

Great weather for farmers, miners and sawmill men, and with their doing well the rest of us will have the least possible financial trouble.

Governor Chamberlain will be excused for telling the Californians that "California is a great state, the greatest on the coast excepting Oregon," the Californian remembering he is their guest, while in Oregon we are loyal to our governor and state.

When would-be forgers get knowledge that their kind are getting heavy sentences they may be deterred. A giddy little youth who forged the name of his employer to a $60 check to buy wine for barrique chorus girls with has just got a ten-year sentence. Chorus girls always did come high.

If you want an elegant location for suburban home, and that close in, within ten minutes' walk of the business part of town, see J. R. Campbell about two choice lots where you begin to go up College Hill on the old street car line street.

Corner lots with both streets graded so the lots are a couple of feet or so above the street surface. Streets graveled, too, with sidewalk to the property. Turn to right at planting mill or go up over point of hill.

Sickening Shivering Fits

Of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. S. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At W. L. DeLano's drug store. Price 50c, guaranteed."
