Political Advertising

The Oregon Press Association wisely decided that its members should charge for political advertising, which is just. For years the press of Oregon has given gratis all political advertising. But now the press has unanimously decided that this advertising must be paid for, just as other reading or display advertising is paid for.

The decision of the association is sound and the politician finds himself able to secure space if he wants to foot the bill, and the printer accepts the money for the good honest work he performs.

It will be noticeable hereafter in Oregon that the candidate that uses printer's ink judiciously and freely will get the business just as the live, wide-awake merchant does who knows the value of advertising.

In this way, too, the candidate can talk directly to the voter at less expense than under the old method, and the public will have a better opportunity to judge a man by his articles than under the old stump campaign method of the past.

Seldom before at this time of year has that inflexible test of financial conditions, bank clearances, shown up better. Of the hundred or thereabouts of cities with clearance houses only three show a decrease from the same period last year, the percentage of increase for the whole country being 35 per cent. and 20 per cent. with New York. That this decidedly better tone in monetary affairs is not the result of politics or prospective legislation is conclusively shown by the fact that without an exception the Dominion of Canada cities show better, 28 per cent. representing their gain.

Prosecuting Attorney Miller, of Boise, Idaho, on whom the prosecution of Harry Orchard for the murder of ex-Governor Stuenkel devolves, does not propose to be caught napping. He has taken $10,000 accident insurance in addition to $5000 life insurance carried before. It is a bad state of affairs where a man does his duty under fear for his life.

Wanted

Two men in each county to represent and advertise hardware department, put out samples of our goods, etc. Traveling department or office manager. Salary $80 per month, cash weekly, with all expenses paid in advance. We furnish everything. The Columbia House, Chicago, Ill. Dept. 10, Monon Bldg.

If you want an elegant location for suburban home, and that close in, within ten minutes' walk of the business part of town, see J. B. Campbell about two choice lots where you begin to go up College Hill on the old street car line street.

Corner lots with both streets graded so the lots are a couple of feet or so above the street surface. Streets graded, too, with sidewalk to the property. Turn to right at planing mill or go up over court of hill.
