Life Was All Then
 Among those who perished when the Valencis went to pieces was J. B. Graham, a passenger, and with him went a bag containing $1500 in gold. Survivors of the wreck say that Graham frantically offered the bag of gold to any one who would place him on shore. But the others paid little heed to the pleadings of the man, and his gold lay on the broken deck, kicked under foot, no one bothering to even pick it up.
 "It was one time when gold would not buy what was wanted," said one of the survivors, as he related the story and watched the twinkling lights of the Seattle water front as the vessel drew into her dock in the early hours of the morning.
 "I'm coming into a safe harbor without a cent. Why, even this shirt I have on belongs to another man, and I haven't even a hat. This ship loaded with gold wouldn't tempt me into such a place again."
 Graham, the man drowned, recently sold a mine in Alaska for $60,000.
 During 1905 the comparatively new Coeur d'Alene mining district produced $15,220,000 worth of minerals an increase of three millions over the preceding year. Here's the credit in round numbers: Lead, $10,020,000; silver, $4,020,000; copper, gold and zinc, $1,000,000. To secure these minerals the enormous number of 1,445,170 tons of ore were mined.
 George C. Brownell, the Oregon City statesman, has filed his declaration to become a candidate for state senator, taking pledge No. 1 to sustain the people's choice for United States senator. He says the people alone can break the graft of the United States senate, a body of men who have bought their offices in spite of the constitution. It is cool afternoon when you catch the Hon. Geo. C. on the unpopular side of a really great question. He is a man who has a keen ear.

Furious Fighting
 "For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you by W. L. DeLano, druggist, at 50c a bottle for them today.
