AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

The Ashland Times, telling about the heavy snow that blocked traffic on the Klamath River railroad last week, (President Campbell), of the university, got caught, says the saddest case was that of a young lady enroute to San Francisco to get married, and who was frantic over her inability to make connections. She would not be consoled with the suggestions of cold-blooded fellow passengers that a later date would answer as well.

Rhineland Waldo, clubman and millionaire, has been appointed first deputy police commissioner of New York. It would look and sound better should he prune his signature to "R. Waldo." Some of them, though, are proud of their descent and the names handed down from their banding, wooden-shod Dutch ancestors, the women of whom, according to Irving, were taken as models for their ships—built as wide in beam as from stem to stern.

That Chattanooga, Tennessee, dispatch Saturday that a negro whom a mob failed to get Thursday night would be tried yesterday and if the jury convicted executed today, shows the stress under which Southern judges dispense justice to negroes for shameful, desperate crimes where white women are helpless victims. The judge, knowing the negro's life is forfeit, would forestall swift mob law and in a way preserve respect for the law by hurrying him to the scaffold. Even that will not appease the people who clamor for his blood. They want revenge, an object lesson in a cruel death that will deter other negroes from committing a similar crime.

Then and Now

Oregonian.
The admission of a millionaire member of the beef trust that he had served a jail sentence forty years ago for defrauding the government, is of interest merely as showing the difference in the handling of meat magnates by the courts then and now. It can scarcely lower his social standing in packing house circles.

Furious Fighting

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper Wash, "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and cured my disease by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you by W. L. DeLano, druggist, at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

See our fine Standard Paragon sewing machines at only $19.50 and $21.50, fully warranted in all respects. You can try them before you buy them, and I think you will agree with me that they are wonderfully good machines. 33 East Ninth street.
