AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3

Probably other men, at least married ones, are more secretive than the Register "Side Thoughts" man. About the Miss Sheek alleged to have been kidnapped at Portland, after seeing her picture in a Portland paper he ungenerously remarks: "Since seeing Miss Sheek's picture we can't blame the kidnappers."

Such Oregonians as are dissatisfied on account of not having our usual rainfall may find it to their heart's content in our new possessions several thousand miles westerly, the Ladrone Islands. During the typhoon that swept Guam November 7 and 8 thirty-one inches of water fell in twenty-four hours, an inch and a quarter an hour. Not much room for air during such a rainfall.

The Salem Young Men's Republican Club will give a banquet Lincoln's birthday, February 12. Five hundred guests will be invited from all over the state, of course a very representative gathering of the great party. What are they thinking about now and what will they think most about then even though they guardedly express their thoughts? "How to beat George Chamberlain for governor." And they know it's a hard proposition.

Mr. Mizner, the youngish bridegroom of 50-year-old Mrs. Yerkes and her millions—a widow of a month—says he has nothing to say. A very comfortable frame of mind, indeed. It is interesting to note that when he entered the bride's Fifth Avenue mansion yesterday he was accompanied by a valet, two suit cases and a hat box. So at the start he had more than the clothes he wore! When the trouble that is almost sure to come arrives the old lady will not be able to truthfully reproach him with the tenant that has done so much service, that when she married him he had but one suit, the one on his back.

Furious Fighting

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper Wash, "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I enthusiastically recommend them to all and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you by W. L. DeLano, druggist, at 50c a bottle, try them today.
