AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10

A crusader of the "Anti-Profanity Society of the World," originated at San Francisco a year ago, thinks he has found a profitable field in Portland. He should meet with success. There is no sense or excuse in swearing, though we must admit there are times when nothing but lurid profanity seems to fit the case and give relief to pent-up feelings.

It does not seem that it should have been made necessary for the mayor and police committee of Pendleton the other day to instruct the marshal to notify the saloons that the law excluding women, minors and black-listed habitués drunkards would be strictly enforced, also that prohibiting sale of liquor to Indians. In the end it is for the good of the saloon man to observe the reasonable regulations prescribed in the law under which he does business.

The Baker City Democrat tells of the death there of Richard Ridd at 90 years, who had been a resident of Baker county nearly forty years. There is pathos in such ending of life as described by that paper: "A man of great liberality and charitably disposed, the deceased parted with his money with a generous hand, and seemingly never gave a thought to a rainy day. At the time of his death he was penniless. As far as known, he had no relatives."

A Portland preacher expresses the positive opinion that the hugging accompaniment is responsible for the dance, and stripped of that the world wouldn't wait it. And he is very skeptical as to the pleasure men take in dancing with their own wives.

"I dance with my wife," said a gentleman to me who was trying to excuse himself for his practice of dancing. "That may answer to tell a minister who is supposed to know nothing about it, but every one who is familiar with the modern waltz knows that a man will not dance with his wife more than once or twice during the evening. The ordinary man who follows the dance would no more think of going to a ball and dancing all night with his wife than he would think of going out into his back yard and splitting wood all night by moonlight for amusement."

Bread Mixing Machine

The University Bakery has recently installed a two-barrel electric mixer, which is doing excellent work without touching hands to the dough. It is the only machine of the kind in the Willamette valley.

Mr. Condon cordially invites the public, and especially the ladies, to call and inspect the sanitary conditions of his shop, and he would be pleased to demonstrate the methods of making bread with machinery.

The Yellow Fever Germ

has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed to cure all diseases due to malaria, poison and constipation, at 25c W. L. DeLano's drug store.

Bring your jug to W. M. Green's and get it filled with that genuine sorghum.

A woman worries until she gets wrinkles, then worries because she has them. If she takes Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea she would have neither. Bright, smiling face follows its use. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Linn Drug Co.

Sickening Shivering Fits

of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. S. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. He took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At W. L. DeLano's drug store. Price 50c, guaranteed."
