AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

That Albert Lawson, blown forty feet on the north bank of Columbia river railroad while thawing dynamite, then with eye torn out and horribly mangled walked a mile to camp, will survive. Pluck and nerve carry men through in cases where they would die if at all weak.

The latest from that edifying money and title exchange sale—Gould and Castellane—at Paris, is that she offered the count $40,000 annual life income as a kind of a quit claim. Having married millions he would not accept thousands. Besides he asserted that sum was not enough to keep him in pocket money. Great people those!

Pittsburg has a boy who when he starts running cannot stop till compelled by exhaustion. However only one instance is given, and that by no means conclusive. He started to school and commencing to run could not stop and was involuntarily carried several miles by the educational shop. It is not exceptional. Boys all over this great country are failing to sto at the schoolhouse, the disease, if it may be called such, having greatly aggravated when the first warm days of spring come with maybe fish a biting.

Down at New Orleans the other day when the ready-to-cut surgeons were after his vermiform appendix Joseph Donahue, after having been placed on the operating table at the Charity Hospital to undergo an operation which was supposed to mean life or death to him, broke away from the surgeons and nurses, sprang from the table, climbed a ladder to a skylight, which he smashed, and was chased about the roof of the building for ten minutes before he was captured. Of course the appendix was what they were after, but Joseph, like Congressman Longworth at the Roosevelt hospital, had to be there to make it go.
