AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17

February is a short month, but we have already had Lincoln's birthday and St. Valentine's Day, with Washington's birthday yet to come.

The irony of fate is shown by the sale of the Hotel Perkins realty at Portland for $400,000. A dozen years ago "Dick" Perkins lost the property on a $125,000 mortgage, and with it virtually lost his life, as his reverses killed him.

The way this country is aging is shown by a New York dispatch that Frederick W. Seward, aged 70, was knocked down and severely injured by an automobile Wednesday. What of him? Why he is the son of Wm. H. Seward, Lincoln's secretary of state, who barely escaped death at the hands of an assassin the same evening that Lincoln was assassinated.

Aaron Fox at Troutdale, fifteen miles out from Portland on the railroad up the Columbia, has just had his store robbed for the sixth time. He has got so used to it that he is really somewhat disappointed if on coming down in the morning he fails to find things "shot up." No one has been caught, and asked if he reported the burglary to the authorities he won'tly responded: "Oh, yes; I reported the affair—merely a matter of form, though."

The British bark, Drumraig, lumberladen from Portland to Manila, 190 days overdue, has been about given up for lost. Reinsurance rates have jumped by rapid rates during the last two weeks to 50 per cent—the owners pay $300 premium for each $1000 insurance. Her crew? Twenty men and a woman will probably "never return." Her aged captain had just retired and his place was filled by another retired captain, moved by the desire to make just another trip.

How many million dollars were put into the Roosevelt campaign? Capitalistic interests? The New York Life Insurance Company alone contributed $114,722, as just reported by the committee investigating the management thereof. Does elective franchise bribery have any better standing in morality than the ordinary penitentiary bribery? Yet it seems to be the practice nowadays to go into the close states to buy the presidential election. It is to be noted that the strenuous and didactically inclined Theodore does not improve the opportunity to point a moral—he is the beneficiary, the principal in receiving the corruptly obtained goods.

GET THIS BEAUTIFUL COLORED PICTURE FREE

Splendid Reproduction, in Sixteen Tints of a Celebrated Painting

Every person who sends one dollar to pay for a year's subscription to the Twice-a-Week Republic, of St. Louis, Mo., and Farm Progress, will receive, absolutely free, a beautiful colored picture, 24x32 inches in dimensions, entitled, "The Departure of the Bride from the Home of Washington." This picture is a direct reproduction from the celebrated painting by Ferris. Sixteen colors were employed in the process. It is mounted on a fine, heavy paper, and will make, when framed and hung, a magnificent ornament for the home. Aside from its genuine artistic merit it possesses an uncommon interest to every American, as the central figure in it is George Washington, standing at the portals of his Virginia home, bidding adieu to the bride and bridegroom. The color work is highly ornate and correct in every detail, as are the character representations, costumes, etc.

The Twice-a-Week Republic is the oldest and best semi-weekly family paper in the country, and Farm Progress, which is also published by the Republic, is the fastest growing farm monthly in America. Remember that you get both of these splendid journals an entire year, and the beautiful big colored picture, all for only One Dollar.

Present subscribers may take advantage of this offer, by sending a dollar and having their time marked up a year. The Republic hereby gives notice that this offer may be withdrawn at any time, and those who wish the picture should send in subscriptions at once.

Remit by Post-Office or express money order, registered letter or bank draft. Do not send personal checks. Write names and addresses plainly and, address.
