AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

TUESDAY, MARCH 2

Richard A. McCurdy, who robbed and assisted in robbing the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company of amounts running into the millions, has sailed for Europe on the Amerika. He occupied the $25,000 "imperial suite." "Plate sin with gold the strong lance of justice hurtless breaks."

It is felt in official circles the world over that war between France and Germany is sure to result over the Moroccan situation. It is not too much to say if war comes that the responsibility will rest on the shoulders of one man, the emperor of Germany. It shows the supreme folly of intelligent people allowing one-man rule.

Mrs. Maria Williamson has endowed a chair of civilization in Columbia University on condition that the college abolish football. As well attempt to abolish boys fighting, and men fighting in war, too. There is but one way to stop football with boys and war with men, but we hardly think the lady would propose that. The spirit of strife possesses manhood—it has been so from the first, the stone club remaining from the dim and misty past where all else has vanished.

The severe beating that Harry Tenny received one evening last week at San Francisco, that resulted in his death the following morning, is causing the principals considerable trouble at present. In the Examiner's account of the fight on Thursday morning, even before it was known that Tenny was likely to die, W. W. Naughton said that the fight trust promoters were greatly worried over Tenny's condition as soon as the fight was over. Why the referee and even the police allowed Tenny to be beaten to death, when they knew that the unfortunate young man had been practically helpless for several rounds, is something that they should be made to explain. Tenny was nearly out in the fourth round, and yet his heartless seconds kept sending him back at Neil for eighteen more rounds with a carelessness that has scarcely ever been witnessed in the prize ring.

It is the greatest food of the day, and besides being extra good for confectionery purposes it is a great breakfast food, and can be served warm or cold with sugar and cream. It is especially fine for use in soup instead of crackers, and is delicious served with butter and salt, or used with tea, coffee, chocolate or milk.
