Note and Comment

The venomous press correspondent at Arlington telegraphing an explosion of dynamite whereby Thomas Johnson, of Minneapolis, aged 25, had both arms and legs torn off, says he was "killed instantly." We should think so.

Not much liberty of the press over in Spain. The editor of El Deluive, Barcelona, has just got a sentence of eight years' imprisonment for printing a dispatch derogatory to the weakling king, Alfonso.

Mrs. George West was married to Alex Charley near Oakville, Wash., Sunday. Chelalis Indians, the fair bride thought to be about an even hundred old, Alex Charley thirty-five. Wonder if she had the "stuff" like in the Mrs. Yerkes-Mizner episode?

F. Augustus Heinze, Montana copper magnate, is reported short two to six millions, dropped in the last week in the New York copper market. That would hurt some of us.

A British Columbia dispatch says a supposedly murdered man for which another was hung on purely circumstantial evidence, protesting innocence to the last, has been seen in the far north. If true, terrible!

Sorrow killed, and that suddenly, at Seattle the other day. Mrs. Bailey fell dead at the feet of a telegraph messenger boy after reading the telegram he had just given her giving the news that her son had been stabbed to death at Redlands, California.

Indian Territory has a bad case of a gas well afire. It has been burning since February 5, flames a hundred and fifty feet high and is visible forty miles. The intense heat generated is shown in the attempt to cap the well with a 3000-pound iron cap. Twenty feet away from the well the intense heat turned the big piece of iron to a white heat.

Dr. James A. Booth, deceased, of Spokane, showed his affluence more consideration than most men show their wives. He willed his entire estate, amounting to $5000, except one dollar each to his four children. It does not seem possible the will can stand, that is if the children have relatives to look after their interests. It is unnatural.

For the Public Benefit

O. C. Mickelson would like the public to read what Dr. Harris says: "I have had the O. C. Mickelson & Co. dairy examined and find everything in a satisfactory condition."
J. W. HARRIS,
Co. Health Officer.
February 10, 1906.

Wholesale Meats

Paul Mestel has rented the City Meat Market to John Abbott, and Mr. Mestel will hereafter furnish wholesale meat to this market as well as others.

Reward

I will pay $5 for information as to who took about 2000 pressed brick from the Reams brickyard on East Seventh street.
M. G. BULEY.

We will sell you silverware for a few days at prices that will surprise you.
J. O. WATTS.

"Hello, Bill; when are you going to Gough's bicycle store to have your wheel cleaned and packed in vaseline? They say it's great."
