AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

MONDAY, MARCH 12

"Wid De Push"

The morning paper does not know the definition of independence and is angry, calling the Guard a grafter because it would take a $5 political advertisement and then not support the advertiser. The Guard's support is not for sale. We favor the election of the best man for office regardless of politics.

Has the Register an opinion as to which of the candidates for nomination would make the best congressman, best governor, or best senator? If it has it won't tell—because it has no independence. To prove that the Guard is independent, we will state that the manager of this paper in conversation with L. E. Bean, L. H. Bingham, G. W. Griffin and S. H. Friendly, all of the city, also with Hon. Percy Kelly, of Albany, and many others whose reputation is fully as good as that of the editor of the morning "stand-pat wid-de-gang" sheet, offered to support and work for a congressional republican nominee, not asking $888, job work or county printing in return for that support. The Guard was actuated in this to obtain a man for congress who is strong, reliable and would honor the state if nominated and elected.

The morning paper's course in attempting to defeat the nomination of E. U. Lee, for county clerk two years ago, one of the best officials Lane county ever had, is not forgotten. Its lack of independence in telling the facts about the timber-cruising graft that took money out of the taxpayer's pockets, is still remembered. Its course on the blacking of the county road near Springfield and its continued support of all corporation interests, show its true mission to be not for the people but for—well it is easily seen.

The Guard will remain independent and will support the men irrespective of party who will serve the people best. Those whose political announcements are made through this paper have no right to suppose they have bought our support, and candidates laboring under the impression that the little advertisement buys the support of the Guard are requested to call and withdraw the same at once.

All candidates who belong only to "de morning growler gang," subject to its bosses' wishes and desires, should immediately withdraw from all other papers and make their announcement "wid de push" only.
