AN INDEPENDENT PAPER.

TUESDAY, APRIL 3

These people who take delight in torturing others more timid occasionally come to grief. David Tryon, down in California, to frighten his wife hung from a bridge railing over a swollen stream. His grip, maybe head, failed him and he fell in and was drowned.

The congregations of the First and Second Presbyterian churches of Cincinnati will consolidate next May. Good! Then they will build a new temple with a bowling alley in the basement. Good again! Why build costly churches for use but practically one day in the week?

Rather breezy over there in Eastern Oregon. A Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, dispatch tells about Joe Reed, sheep herder, being missing after attending a sociable, then naively adds that it was supposed he had fallen in the creek and been drowned, as he had been on a protracted spree for two months. Ordinarily a sociable and two months' spree are very far apart.

The Oregonian wants the state university moved from Eugene to Portland because of the impurity of the water in Eugene. This is small business on the part of Oregon's leading paper.

Whatever the Eugene water may have been the city will of course not permit it to remain contaminated, and in future years may have as good water as any of the towns. Anyway, the university is established and should remain where it is. It is never good policy to get an institution away from a sister city.—Albany Democrat.

Mrs. Emma Chalmers, of Memphis, aged 22, will not swear away her good name to save her husband. He was jealous of a former friend of hers and shot and killed him. After the killing the husband calmly let it be known that he would trust his defense to the unwritten law. But the woman does not propose to sacrifice herself, talks very logically: "I saw my husband last night," said Mrs. Chalmers after the shooting. "He asked me what I was going to do for him. I told him I could not promise to do anything. I have told his brother the same thing. So far as I am concerned my husband killed an innocent man. I believe he did it deliberately, and am certain that Arnold did not even know he was suspected of any wrong. My first duty is to my own name and the future of my boy, David. He is three years old and I love him. I believe, as much as I value my own honor. Even to save his father I could not say that I was guilty of dishonor and blight the baby's life."

Wonderful Cures Performed by DR. WARD

The Great American Specialist

Nothing Like It Ever Seen In Eugene Before

Dr. Ward and staff, of the Medical Institute of Liverpool, England, and Crawfordsville, Ind., lectured to a large audience Monday night. The doctors are agreeable and forceful speakers and held the audience in close attention while they explained the theory and usefulness of their wonderful discoveries.

Many promises were made which seemed utterly impossible to believe, and when the doctor invited those who were hard of hearing to come forward and be cured, S. Y. Abbott, Geo. A. Dyson and W. Gossett responded to the call and were made to hear a whisper in a few seconds.

The doctor then called for cripples on crutches, and Mrs. L. A. Huston responded. She had a compound fracture and after that the giant disease rheumatism set in and she was unable to walk except with crutches and great difficulty and pain. She was operated on with medicine 20 minutes and walked off the stage free from pain and stiffness, followed by the wondering crowd, while the doctor broke her crutches. To say the audience was astonished and wild would be putting it mildly. The doctors were warmly congratulated. It seemed like a dream but it was real. Ministers and doctors were in the audience, and they seemed as well pleased as any.

They treat the following diseases: Paralysis, catarrh, deafness, big neck, bladder and kidney diseases, rheumatism, scrofula, loss of manly vigor, female diseases, bowel complaint, debility, dropsy, heart, liver and nerve diseases, tape worm, sore legs, all ear and eye diseases, cancers, piles and fistula cured without cutting or pain, and all kinds of chronic diseases treated.

CONSULTATION FREE.

The treatment is medicine and osteopathy. Will not visit any other town in the county. All wishing treatment must come to Eugene by Tuesday, April 10, at 6 p. m., positively the last day in Eugene.
