

Did You Watch Campbell's First Addition Co?

Well, it's practically all sold, for lots left. Yes, good ones at that. They are all good. This fine weather has given us a chance to show intending purchasers over the property and most of them bought. Pay some attention to the building operations in that section from now on, and make up your mind quick to buy in the Second Addition.

San Francisco Acclaims!

PRESS AND PUBLIC ALIKE D CLARE THAT CRESTON CLARKE
...IN...
"MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE"

Provides by Far the Best Entertainment of the Season.

WHAT ONE WELL-KNOWN CRITIC SAYS:
Mr. Clarke is a polished actor. He is one of the very few serious players that are entirely bearable in a roll calling for a continuous foreign accent. Mr. Clarke sustains the dialect of this amiable young Frenchman without once becoming a bore. He does not overdo it. He never employs it at the expense of clarity. His vocal equipment is always adequate. And he has the bearing of a Duke of Orleans who can only imperceptibly disguise his royal grace. He manages a blade as neatly as he manages the lines at his wrists. There is more than dandyism in his study of Beaucaire and never a note of revolting effeminacy. Delicacy, wit and tenderness are abundant in Mr. Clarke's portraiture. His magnetism sometimes finds telling expression in a smile, and his slight figure and lean mobile face happily lend themselves to the youthfulness of the character.—Ashton Stevens in San Francisco Examiner.

The City Council Hesitates the Saloon Men Act

The City Council Meets Tonight For Purpose of Raising Saloon Licenses From $500 to $800 Per Annum

All of Eugene's saloon men took out licenses today to do business for another year. Last night the council attempted to pass an $800 license ordinance, and meets tonight to push the matter to a final passage. It was generally supposed that the licenses expired on the 15th, but the saloon men on investigating the matter found that they expired today. This being the 35th and the boys being superstitious, they concluded to take out licenses at the rate of $500 per annum for another year and are laughing at the councilmen who intended to help the city revenues at their expense.

WORK ON THE NEW GAS PLANT

Machinery Expected Here Soon--Railroad Switch Being Built to Site

The Southern Pacific Co. is building a switch to the site of the new gas plant of the Wilmette Valley Company at the east end of Fifth street, so that the machinery for the plant when it arrives may be unloaded directly from the cars to the building. The switch will remain permanently as a convenience in unloading coal and other material used by the plant. Machinery for the gas works is expected to arrive shortly and the plant will be rushed to completion.

Eugene's Modern Baking

The Eugene Baking Company has just installed a moulding machine. This machine takes the dough, and after running it through a series of rollers moulds it ready for the oven.

The company recently installed a double roll dough mixer capable of mixing 1000 pounds of dough in twenty minutes. This model in the dough roller is new in this class of machinery, up to the present time only 500 lbs. in use in the United States. A dividing machine has been ordered which when it arrives this summer will concern will mix, divide and mould by machinery, having a capacity of 10,000 loaves of bread daily.

The bakery is doing a big wholesale and retail business and invites the public generally to see how cleanliness and sanitary conditions are lived up to.

WILL OF HENRY

G. HADLEY FILES

Estimated Value of His Property $25,000--Leaves it to His Children

The will of Henry G. Hadley, who died April 2, was admitted to probate today. The probable value of the property of the estate is $25,000. The heirs are Charles, George and Frank Hadley, sons, and Mrs. Eliza Jane Makin, daughter. By the terms of the will S. B. Egan is appointed executor without bond, and J. Schriber, H. G. Hayes and Frank Deane have been appointed by the probate court as appraisers of the property.

The will was executed in Eugene July 20, 1897, in the presence of Sherwood H. and A. C. Woodcock. A codicil was executed September 10, 1904, in the presence of A. W. Woodcock and L. T. Harris.

The will bequeaths to Charles Hadley certain parts of the donation land claim of H. Richardson, J. M. Criswell and Thomas Childers; to George Hadley a certain part of the donation land claims of J. M. Criswell and Thomas C. Criswell; to Frank Hadley all of the donation land claim of Jos. Manning. These bequests are made with certain provisions. To Eliza Jane Egan is bequeathed the dwelling house on lot 1, block 1, Mulligan's addition, Eugene. Gertrude Hadley, wife, is bequeathed a life estate in said dwelling and use and control of her personal property. The codicil provides certain conditions in regard to the bequests to George, Frank and Charles Hadley.

Hyomel Cures Catarrh in Natural and Rational Way.

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the system when Hyomel is used in the treatment of catarrh. Breathe through the nostrils the vapor that comes with every outfit, the immediate healing of bronchitis, pneumonia and most remote cells of the nose, throat and lungs, stopping coughs, colds and hoarseness, relieving the inflamed membrane and effecting complete and permanent cures. No medicine taken into the stomach can possibly reach the remote cells of the air passages, or give the immediate relief that follows the use of Hyomel. A few days' treatment is usually all that is necessary to show how quickly this remedy will cure catarrh. So successful has Hyomel been in the cure of catarrh among their customers that Hill's drug store sells it under a positive guarantee that it costs nothing unless it gives satisfaction. The complete outfit sells for one dollar while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.
