Note and Comment

From some sad experience in the mountains sleeping in clothing and blankets that might as well have been in the river as far as dryness was concerned, we are of the opinion that whatever bad effects the rain may have on feeble people exposed to it at San Francisco those in ordinary health will experience nothing more than discomfort. Out in the open air, whatever the weather, people do not take colds. They come from stuffy, poorly ventilated living and sleeping rooms and from experiencing extremes of heat and cold, like going from that abominable of all things—a stove heated room to the open air, for instance.

With another earthquake shock at San Francisco those people who will congratulate themselves on their good judgment.

As usual in case of disaster, every thing is not so bad as first reported. In the business part of San Francisco it is believed many steel buildings can be rehabilitated, even that the Palace Hotel can be saved.

Raphael Well, head of the late big White House store at San Francisco, and 70 years old, announces he will begin business again. A great spirit in him lacking physical vigor.

Did You Hear?

"God is not such a monster as to bring wholesale destruction on innocent people," said Dr. N. F. Rave, at a lecture at the Auditorium in Portland Sunday night. Dr. Rave spoke on the San Francisco calamity, and took severely to task the ministers who had declared the disaster a judgment of the Almighty.

"I protest against the theory that God sent this calamity upon the cities of California on account of their wickedness. God would have spared Sodom if he could have found five righteous men in it."

"San Francisco is no more wicked than other cities, and if this city were destroyed for its wickedness, what would be the fate of Portland? God has nothing to do with these calamities."

"There are some clergymen who think they know every thing that God plans. The truth is that they know nothing about it."

Devil's Island Torture

Is no worse than the terrible case of piles that affected me ten years. Then I was advised to apply Buckle's Arnica Salve, and less than a box permanently cured me. writes L. S. Naylor, of Rogers, Ky. Heals all wounds, burns and sores like magic. See at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

A Healing Gospel

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a god-send to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee by W. L. DeLano, druggist, Price 50c.

PETITION FOR INCORPORATION.

To the Honorable County Court of Lane County, Oregon:

Your petitioners, the undersigned, legal voters and residents of the village of Coburg, in Lane county, Oregon, do most respectfully represent and show to your honorable court that we are legal voters of said village, and residents within the boundaries thereof, as hereinafter described, and we desire to become incorporated under the provisions of the act of 1893, entitled "An act for a general law for the incorporation of cities and towns in the State of Oregon."

That the boundaries of the town of Coburg be as follows: Commencing at the southeast corner of Casandra E. G. Delany's land in section 33 township 16, south 3 west, and thence north to the section line between sections 33 and 28, thence west to the county road, thence south along the center of said county road to the center of the large Mill Slough, thence along the center of said Mill Slough a point due west from the point of commencement, and thence east to the place of beginning.

That within the boundaries as above described there are now residing about seven hundred people, residents and inhabitants of said bounded district.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that said town of Coburg, Lane county, Oregon, be incorporated under the provisions of the said acts above referred to.

Respectfully submitted,
George A. Drury, F. B. Sackett, Geo. W. Brentner, J. H. Eversen, Fred E. Barnard, Warren Conney, James Evans, A. S. Park, Lea Jarungin, A. C. Harden, H. C. Bishop, J. H. Harden, N. N. Human Blood Marks

A tale of horror was told in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bae, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures hemorrhages, chronic coughs, settled colds and bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by W. L. DeLano, druggist. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
