Neglected Colds Lead to Consumption.

How Consumption Develops.

Consumption out of ten occur in this way:

A person catches cold. The cold is not properly cured, and another cold is caught.

The cold is dilly-dallied with, either by treatment, whatever or some treatment that is ineffectual, and the cold continues.

Then another cold is caught and a cough develops. Cough syrups are resorted to, but they give only temporary relief.

By and by the patient gets tired of taking medicine and cough syrups and gives up in despair.

The cold continues to develop and the cough grows worse.

Then the doctor is called in, only to discover that the patient is in the first stages of consumption.

It was just in this way that Miss Powell, of Aurora, Ind., became sick. She caught a cold, and not considering it serious, neglected it, thinking as many others do, that it would "wear off."

However, it clung to her tenaciously, and in two weeks she found her health in a serious condition.

Fortunately, Peruna had been brought to her notice, and she took a course of this remedy before it was too late.

In a week the cough and cold were broken, and a three weeks' treatment completely restored her to health.

This is what Peruna is doing all the while. Not a day, and probably not an hour passes in which some one does not have a similar experience with Peruna.

Cure the Slight Colds and Avoid Consumption.

The first step toward consumption is a cold. The next step is a failure to cure it promptly. The third step is the development of catarrh, which gradually becomes chronic. The fourth step, the catarrh begins to spread from the head to the throat, then to the bronchial tubes, and finally into the lungs. It is then consumption in the first stage.

At any time during the progress of catarrh, from the first onset of the cold to its final settlement in the lungs, Peruna can be relied upon to stop the disease. If you have taken a cold, buy Peruna without delay. One bottle in the beginning will do more good than a half dozen bottles after the catarrh has fastened itself on the lungs.

Thousands of Testimonials.

We have on file thousands of testimonials from people who have been cured of catarrh of the lungs by Peruna. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

THE PAINE BLOCK

The brick work which has just been completed on the new Paine block has been done on record time, having been completed over a month before the date allowed the contractor for the work. Everything has progressed harmoniously and there has been no hitch between the principal contractor and the sub-contractors. It is usually the case. Contractor W. H. A. is to be congratulated upon the rapidity with which the work has been carried on.

McPherson; secretary, Miss L. M. Smith; treasurer, W. T. Clark; physician, Dr. R. A. Jayne.

Justice of the Peace

The office of justice of the peace is a very important one to the people in a financial way, as it is there that the criminal cases that come to the circuit court have their initiative. It lies in the power of a head-headed justice of the peace to greatly curtail expenditures in criminal prosecutions. He can say there is no reason for binding the defendant over, or can send him with probably a long list of witnesses, making heavy expense to the taxpayer, up to the circuit court. Herein the writer would call attention to the fidelity of George W. Kinsey, candidate for justice of the peace for the Eugene district, to his trust when he holds that position.

From our personal knowledge of the merits of criminal cases while filling the chief executive office of the county several years, all of which time Mr. Kinsey was justice, we can say he used good judgment in criminal examinations, his commitments to the grand jury usually resulting in indictments and convictions in the circuit court.

A Healing Gospel

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a good send to mankind. It cures many lame backs, stiff joints and complete physical collapse. I took a week of me back and am now walking a mile without a hitch. I feel like a new man."

All democratic candidates and committees are invited to present their names for election to the office of justice of the peace at the Springfield Hotel, Eugene, Oregon, on Wednesday, May 21, 1908, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. May 21, 1908, at the office of L. M. Davis, over the Eugene Loan & Savings bank, for the purpose of forming an organization to conduct the campaign.

JOHN CUMMINS RETURNS TO OREGON TO LIVE

Former Lane County People Attain to Distinction in the Eastern States

From the Elizabeth, New Jersey, Daily Journal of April 14 we learn that John Cummins, ex-mayor of Roselle Park, New Jersey, has sold his residence in that place and will soon move to Albany, Oregon, to reside. In the early sixties John and Henry Cummins resided with their father and mother near where Junction City is now. Henry went to Washington, D. C., over 40 years ago, and afterwards located in New York City, where he died a few years ago. He organized the Postal Telegraph Company and was a leader in many other business enterprises, among others the building of a railroad in Western New York, where he had his brother John as manager.

John Cummins went East later. He was a member of the Oregon legislature from Yamhill county in 1894; was appointed collector of internal revenue for Idaho by President Grant and, if we remember correctly, was U. S. judge at a later period. He afterwards joined his brother Henry in New York, where he practiced law and engaged in various important enterprises for more than thirty years, until recently when he located in New Jersey and was elected mayor of Roselle Park.

When Henry Cummins lived in Eugene he boarded and roomed for a year or two with H. R. Kincaid before he started the Journal and they both worked in the State Republican office. John Cummins was here a part of the time, after he came from Yamhill county, until he went East. One of their sisters married J. C. Watkins, now a resident of Eugene, and several other sisters and brothers resided in Lane county. John Cummins is an able and experienced lawyer, and will probably practice his profession when he returns. People who leave Oregon nearly always return if they live long enough. State Journal.

Is the Moon Inhabited

Science has proven that the moon has an atmosphere which makes life in some form possible on that satellite; but not for human beings, who have a hard enough time on this earth of ours, especially those who don't know that Electric Bitters cure headache, biliousness, malaria, chills and fever, jaundice, dyspepsia, dizziness, torpid liver, kidney complaints, general debility and female weakness. Unequaled as a general tonic and appetizer for weak persons and especially for the aged. It induces sound sleep. Fully guaranteed by W. L. DeLano, druggist. Price only 50 cents.
