WITHYCOMBE IN EUGENE THIS AFTERNOON

Spoke at the Theatre to the Lane County Republicans on State Issues

Not a Large Audience Present and No Great Amount of Enthusiasm Manifested--Other Addresses Made

Even the leader of the state ticket fails to draw a large audience or elicit a great amount of enthusiasm from the Lane county Republicans. James A. Withycombe, candidate for governor, arrived in Eugene this afternoon and delivered an address at the theatre.

The doctor was met at the depot by the Junior band and number of prominent Republicans, including the following: S. H. Friendly, Dr. T. W. Harris, S. B. Eakin, E. R. Mumme, S. L. Moorhead, Mayor F. M. Wilkins, L. E. Bean, E. J. Fraser, J. W. Hobbs, A. C. Jennings, I. H. Bingham, E. O. Potter, J. M. Shelley, County Judge Chrisman, R. S. Bryson, G. W. Griffin and S. M. Yoran. He was escorted at once to the theatre, where an audience, a little more than half filling the lower floor, had gathered. The stage was nicely decorated with a huge flag and a number of potted plants.

Hon. R. A. Booth, in an appropriate and eloquent speech, introduced Mr. Withycombe, who spoke at length on the issues of the present campaign. He was occasionally interrupted by applause. Among the other speakers on the program were Hon. H. M. Calk, of Portland, who was defeated for the nomination as United States senator by Jonathan Bourne, and Attorney C. N. McArthur, a popular University of Oregon grad etc.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

WHEN JOHNNY-JUMP-UPS COME.

To chase and cheerful gentle spring
I beckon with my thumb.
I want to hear the May bells ring
Their silver toned rum rum.
When all the little birds sing
Come.

And Johnny—
I long for blossoms on the trees—
Peach, apple, cherry, plum—
That nod and beckon in the breeze,
While bees around them hum;
For banis on which to lie at ease
Come.

When Johnny—
I long to hide myself away
With Nature for my chum,
To have a rural holiday,
A regular country "boom,"
And watch the little lambs play
Come.

When Johnny—
I think they beckon to me now
From quiet rural nooks;
I do not know exactly how
A Johnny-jump-up looks;
I never saw one, but I vow
I've read of them in books.

Method.

"Blinks appears to be possessed of the notion that he can sing."

"Oh, no. He is just trying to depreciate the value of the property next door. He wants to buy it."

Hard Lines for the Red Men.

Now that the Indian Territory is to become a half of a sister to us instead of a half sister, as it has been, the red brother has accumulated a new line of responsibilities, troubles and temptations.

It is enough for the white man to answer for that he introduced the Indian to whisky and taught him to fill his red hide with red liquor without having it on his head that he induced the simple aborigine to run for congress and become a member of the United States senate.

What will the shades of his ancestors say as they jibber away in classic Sioux or mixed Choctaw when they see Mr. Lo wrap his tattered coffee sack about him and go down to Washington to help make laws for white and red alike and to mingle in the mad scramble for graft? Nothing very complimentary to their descendants, you may rest assured.

Make Him Like It.

To make the home seem cheerful
And keep the husband sweet,
Go plant a window garden
Beside his evening seat.
Have boxes neatly painted
And keep the edges trim
And then, if he will not be good,
Throw flowerpots at him.

Better Name.

"Why does a dentist call his place of torture a parlor?"

"Why not?"

"Isn't it a drawing room?"

You Never Can Tell.

"Ethel says she never will marry."

"Pshaw! How can she possibly know that some man won't propose to her?"

Barred Him.

"Why don't you buy an automobile?"

"Can't afford it."

"I believe they do require the dollar down in cash."

Where Are They?

They call it single blessedness,
But still it keeps one guessing
In such a very lonely life
To find a single blessing.

Wait for Hunger

Good Advice from Hull's Drug Store as to How to Create an Appetite

Any physician will tell you that it is unwise to eat unless one is really hungry. It is far better to miss a meal than to eat without appetite.

But do not take a tonic, stimulant, or appetizer to make you hungry. Hull's drug store says that the best way to create an appetite is to restore the digestion to health by the use of M-i-o-n-a stomach tablets, a reliable remedy that they have, with the best of satisfaction.

When M-i-o-n-a is used the irritation and inflammation of the stomach coating will be soothed, the gastric follicles will be strengthened so that they will pour out the natural digestive fluids with regularity, and the food you eat will be perfectly digested without distress.

A large box of M-i-o-n-a stomach tablets is sold for 50 cents by Hull's drug store, and it is so successful and reliable in curing indigestion and other stomach troubles, with the exception of cancer of the stomach, that they sell it under a guarantee that the money will be refunded unless it does what is claimed for it. m21 28
