GRADUATING EXERCISES AT DIVINITY SCHOOL

To Be Held Monday Night--Baccalaureate Sermon to Be Delivered Sunday Forenoon

The commencement exercises at the Eugene Divinity School begin next Sunday with the baccalaureate sermon at the Christian church by Rev. F. Walden, of Seattle. The sermon will be followed by ordination services. It is expected that five young men will be ordained into the ministry.

The graduating exercises occur at the Christian church Monday evening. Six young men will receive their degrees. Rev. Davis Errett, of Salem, will deliver the address before the graduating class. The public is invited to attend all the exercises.

The school has just closed the most prosperous year in its history. The attendance has been greater than during any previous year, the library has had a good growth, the endowment fund has been increased and the teaching force has been materially strengthened. Dean E. C. Sanderson feels highly gratified at the success of the school during the past year and is very sanguine as to its future.
