Dowie, the Crazy Apostle

John Alexander Dowie? Well, they have men not as crazy as he in insane asylums, at least there for hallucinations no more remarkable than his. On the witness stand at Chicago Saturday in the trial of Zion City property rights Dowie, told his story: "Are you Elijah, the Restorer?" "I have always been."

"When did you first become conscious of the fact?" "It gradually grew. I recalled the revelation, as it were, and for years was grieved and angry if any one suggested that I was Elijah. I am not a visionary man. The first time it came to my attention was in Melbourne, or Sydney, Australia, while at the head of a Bible society. One night I was asked to preach a sermon. I went to supper and ordered two meals, which I forgot to eat. I had been thinking over my subject and could not get beyond Elijah."

"I was thinking of his remarkable career, and my supper got cold. One of my deacons told me I had a message from God. I laughed and said: 'You go away and let me alone.' He said: 'I want to tell you you are Elijah.' He said that three times and walked away. I was much distressed, for he could not have known that I had been thinking of Elijah for an hour. I spoke, and my last idea was that I was Elijah."

"But, as God is my judge, I thought that I was the second embodiment never entered my head. After the sermon, one member said to me: 'I feel like saying you are Elijah.' I said: 'I am not, don't get that bee in my bonnet.' For years I would not think of it, but in after years I had to come to it. They were all right. The first open revelation was that night."

And this man got not only one man but thousands of men who had sense enough to make and save money to put their thousands, their all in many instances, into his control. What fools these mortals can be, especially when the supernatural is under consideration.

Grant is the power of the press, despite the indifference some people afford as to what the newspaper say. In San Francisco, the powerful oil line, home and foreign fire insurance companies admit that it is the news papers that have compelled them to cut loose from the smaller companies, and proceed to make settlements without further delay. As the result the companies are adjusting promptly and paying risks in cash without any scaling. A leading officer in one company resigned because it began scaling its losses. The Germania, of New York, which is paying all claims against it, has decided to withdraw from the state rather than put all its policies on record something like real property. The company considers that this would be disclosing its business to rivals. It may turn out that the law is unconstitutional. Moreover, it would be costly to register perhaps 3,500,000 policies for the entire state.

It transpires that the year before Beveridge, of Indiana, was elected to the senate he was paid a fee of $5024 by the New York Life Insurance Company. That is probably the reason this distinguished reform statesman has been ready at all times to oppose all kinds of grafts and investigate all the trusts—except life insurance. Beveridge and that other distinguished reformer, District Attorney Jerome, seem to be two of a kind.

In the United States senate, Saturday, Senator Patterson made the statement that the millionaire steel magnates of the country unloaded stock to the extent of a billion dollars that represented plants to the value of but a quarter of that amount, $250-

000,000—in plain words that's $750,000,000—on an unsuspecting public. It is the fool that steals a horse, or property to the value of $50 or so, that finds lodgment in the penitentiary. The "financiers" that steal millions are recognized as pillars in the church and state. No wonder there are socialists who by law would prevent individuals absorbing an undue proportion of the general wealth.

The people of Eugene are well pleased with the reappointment of Rev. Geo. E. McDonald to the pastorate of the United Brethren church. He is very popular among the church people, regardless of denominational affiliation, as well as with those not members of any church. He is now entering upon the fifth year of his work here.

Eugene's future hangs in the balance while the electric railway franchise is pending. One railroad line, high freights and slow development has been the past history of the Willamette valley. Electric lines reaching the timber and mining districts and connecting Eugene with the state metropolis and navigable waters may be the story of the future—or it may not.

Tom Word may not get a certificate of re-election as sheriff of Multnomah county, but he certainly made a grand fight against a mighty hard combination—the Republican party, the Oregon Water Power Co. and the saloon element. It took them all to beat him out five votes, and then they had to swear in repeaters and non-residents by the hundreds.

Colonel Jefferson Myers is president of Oregon's Jamestown expedition commission. That means that this state will be in the limelight down in old Virginia because the colonel has a happy faculty of making his presence known, as well as the fact that he hails from the great and glorious Northwest.

There is no record that the sixty insurance companies that offer to pay but seventy-five per cent of their San Francisco losses ever accepted otherwise than dollar for dollar for premiums.

Colorado people are kicking about a sudden raise of five cents a gallon in the price of coal oil and gasoline. John D. has to even up some way for the money he is spending on his foreign tour.

The American hog has been shut out of Germany more effectively than any tariff could do it by the publication in the papers there of the reports in the condition of Chicago packing houses.

Individual Character Is the Power Which Sustains the Business World :: :: :: By DAVID R. FORGAN, Prominent Chicago Banker

TO me there can be no sadder sight than an old man, already incumbered by this world's wealth, but eager only to increase it before he topples from the earth. They are more numerous in smaller towns than in large cities. Almost every small town has its wealthy men who never part with a dollar IF THEY CAN HELP IT.

Recently I saw a letter from a millionaire referring to the death of a clerk who faithfully had served him thirty years. The man who wrote this letter is rated at $20,000,000. In this letter, after disposing of several matters, he referred to the death of his old employee incidentally and directed that the exact date of the severance of his connection with the office, BECAUSE OF HIS LAST ILLNESS, be ascertained, the exact amount due him for the fraction of the month he had worked be figured up and a check for the amount be mailed to his widow. Do you imagine that old curmudgeon has A SOUL?

My word to the man who would succeed is, "Save your soul." "For what shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" And that I take to mean "What shall it profit a man that if to gain the whole world he lose his own soul IN THE STRIVING?"

Perhaps it may be necessary to be cold blooded in business for the sake of your employer or for the sake of business principles, but if you find that true be one fellow in business and ANOTHER OUTSIDE. To your family, your friends and your fellow man be true also.

If an inhabitant of another planet could come to one of our big cities perhaps he at first would find it ruled by the law of selfishness, the almighty dollar. Later, he would find underneath all the SILENT FORCES OF RIGHTEOUSNESS.

The power which sustains the business world is INDIVIDUAL CHARACTER. While busy men are planning and struggling to build up their material fortunes, every word, every action, every thought of theirs is weaving that eternal structure, their individual characters. That it is the groundwork of the business world is shown by the credit system. I am a dealer in credit. I sit all day dealing in it. Yet I find it elusive. I think sometimes it doesn't exist.

A man comes to my office for a loan of $100,000. I hand his note to the cashier with instructions to credit him with $100,000. I have made the loan, have increased my bank's deposits AND HAVE PAID OUT NOT A CENT. The man draws a check, gives it to another of our customers, and he deposits it anew. Other banks get checks against us. The clearing house wipes all out except a balance so small that the cash required to settle it is too small to notice. And for that we give—A CHECK.

So credit, whether that of the government, the business house or the individual, is the LIFEBLOOD OF MODERN BUSINESS, or, comparing business to a structure, it is the mortar which binds the bricks together. And credit rests on the foundation of character. At least 90 per cent of all business is transacted on credit. And, as character is the foundation of credit, so TRUTH is the foundation of character.

A person who is known as a man of his word, whether spoken or signed, sealed and delivered, has the very best equipment. And this includes frankness, which does not mean telling all you know, but does require that you must not keep back what the other man HAS A RIGHT TO KNOW.

A man to succeed must possess modesty. The boastful man is under the disadvantage that all of his statements are DISCOUNTED whether they are true or not. Conservatism also is a necessary attribute. Commend me to the man who is not in a great hurry to get rich, but is satisfied with the old plan of gradually adding to his pile and not trying to get SOMETHING FOR NOTHING. Occasionally you see a man get rich by speculation, but my experience has been that when a man goes up like a rocket it is not long before he comes down like a stick, AND A BURNT STICK AT THAT.

I have several rules for young and for old. The first is, "Save your money." I say it earnestly, not because I want to increase the deposits in bank, but because IT IS NECESSARY. I have had experience with young men. I have seen a few go wrong, lose their positions through dishonesty, without any fuss being made about it, but they were damned all the same so far as their futures were concerned.

BUT I NEVER KNEW ONE TO GO WRONG WHO HAD A SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNT.

A Poem for Today THE HEAVENS ARE OUR RIDDLE By Herbert Bates THE heavens are our riddle; and the sea. Forested earth, the grassy rustling plain. Snows, rains and thunders. Yea, and even we Before ourselves stand ominous, in vain! The stars still march their way, the sea still rolls, The forests wave, the plain drinks in the sun, And we stand silent, naked—with tremulous souls— Before our mirrored selves—we pray to One Whose hand should help us. But we hear no voice; Skies clear and darken; the days pale and pass. Nor any birds us weep or bids rejoice. Only the wind sobs in the shriveling grass— Only the wind—and we with upward eyes Expectant of the silence of the skies.
