OLYMPIC FLOUR.

The great bread-maker of the coast is now available for Eugene housewives. It's a flour of the most perfect color and the choicest flavor. Made of selected Hard Wheat, it produces many more loaves of bread than any other flour and the loaves are lighter. Because of the increased quantity of bread produced the cost is no higher than for other flours.

ARRESTED FOR VIOLATING LOCAL OPTION LAW

Three Citizens of Florence Will Arrive in Eugene on Tonight's Stage in Custody of a Deputy Sheriff—Accused of Selling Liquor in "Dry" Precinct

Robert Hughes, Wm. Brynd and Berney Barnett, residing at Florence, will arrive in Eugene on tonight's stage in custody of Special Deputy Sheriff George Camp, of Mapleton. These men are under arrest for selling liquor at Florence contrary to the local option law, that precinct having voted dry at the 1904 election.

An information against these men was filed in the circuit court at the present term and a bench warrant issued for their arrest. The case will probably come up tomorrow. The men will first be arraigned and time set to enter a plea.

Hughes and Brynd were liquor dealer at Florence before the local option law went into effect there. The latter is proprietor of a hotel and is quite a prominent citizen there, having at times served the city as councilman and the school district as director. He has a nice family, the sons and daughters being well known in Eugene.

U. O. GRADUATES ADMITTED TO THE BAR

At the recent examinations in Portland for admission of law students to the bar the following well-known graduates of the University of Oregon were successful: O. N. McArthur, of Portland, class of 1901; Ed S. Van Dyke, of Grant's Pass, class of 1901, and Vernon W. Tomlinson, of Portland, class of 1905.

Out of 31 applicants only 21 were successful. It is said the examination was the hardest ever held in Oregon.

OREGON BOYS IN EASTERN COLLEGES

Charles L. Temple, of Portland, was a member of the 1906 class at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, receiving the degree of M. D. this month. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, class of 1899. After his graduation he entered the University of Oregon Medical College for a year, and then taught three years at Mill Military Academy. He was valedictorian of his class at Jefferson, and his high scholarship won for him the appointment a member of the staff of the Redding Hospital, near Philadelphia.

Among the successful candidates for the bachelor of arts degree to be conferred by Yale University June 27, are Foster Harry Rockwell, of Portland, Oregon, the well-known football player and former varsity quarterback, and Kenneth Scott Latourette, of Oregon City. Latourette holds a B. A. from Southwestern University, 1905. Young Rockwell is a son of Rev. L. E. Rockwell, pastor of Humphrey Memorial M. E. church of Eugene.
