NEWS OF INTEREST

FROM SPRINGFIELD

Water Company Nearly Ready To Lay Mains - Pickett Getting Ready to Open Business in the Kepner Building.

Mrs. Harry Stewart entertained the ladies' Embroidery Club at her home last Friday afternoon.

The water works company has the trench finished and is busy dipping the pipe for the mains. A large gang of men was put to work yesterday morning between Fifth and Seventh streets digging trenches. The company expects to have water down Main street by July 15th.

C. H. Pickett, formerly of Eugene, is getting the finishing touches of white and blue paint on the counters and shelving "In the Kepner building, first door east of the bank," and expects to commence serving the people of Springfield and vicinity with hardware and groceries Monday, July 9th. This stock of groceries is being moved from Eugene, and Eugene prices will be maintained.

Jim Stewart has been out of commission since last Friday evening with a sprained ankle which he received at the killing yard across the river. In jumping over the fence after cattle his ankle turned, causing a sprain of the worst kind. It is quite probable that he will be laid up all summer. Three years ago he had the other ankle badly sprained which necessitated the use of crutches for nearly a year. —News.

Too Many Questions

"Mamma," the youngest Duckling said,

As they set out to sail,

"I'm sick of down; why can't I have some feathers on my tail?"

"Not old enough," his mother snapped.

"It seems to me I quack too much,

"A lot," the Duckling said;

"To frighten all the cows and sheep,

"Why can't I bark instead?"

His mother cried, "You're not a dog."

And stood upon her head.

"Do dogs get tadpoles for their tea?"

The Duckling next inquired.

"By dogs," his mother answered him.

"Such dainties aren't desired.

And now you'd better hold your tongue,

For I am getting tired."

"How can I hold—?" a question new

He just commenced, and then

His mother hustled him to land.

And, in a passion, when

She got him there she hissed, "I'd like

To give you a Hen!"
