TUESDAY JULY 10,

The Ideal Vacation

There is something peculiarly invigorating about the sage brush aroma of the South Idaho's plains. Even the traditional prosy, steady-going editor is sometimes carried away by the exuberance of his feelings and indulges in flights of fancy that read queerly down here where we eat and sleep and sleep and eat and fall to get excited over anything, because it's bad for the nervous system.

War comes high but it would seem as if most civilized nations want it regardless of expense. Japan is now making strenuous efforts to pay for her triumph over Russia, and will next fall levy a tariff that will increase the price of necessities of life to her already impoverished people.

Bryan says he's willing to run for president; Hearst declines to enter the race. That settles the Democratic nomination. Now let the Republicans trot out their man for inspection before the gong sounds.

The circulation of the Daily Guard grows because it's bright, newsworthy and up-to-date in all respects. More than that, it prints today's news today.

Who would have the heart to silence an editorial bazoo attuned to such songs of hope and cheerfulness as these, welling up from the sun-baked streets of Pocatello?

What are you going to do with your vacation? Blow it in? Don't. Improve it. Do something good, valuable, useful. You can, in a hundred ways.

Work, somehow. Kill the weeds if nothing else. See the sun rise and love God. Smell the fragrance of the flowers and be thankful for salvation. Help your neighbor and go broke and wake up in the morning rich.

Buy a mockingbird instead of a parrot. Give a kiss to everything sweet. The air, the sky, old mother earth will kiss you back and make your waking and sleeping hours delightful.

Produce something, if it is only a hill of potatoes or a rutabaga. Get in touch with nature. Breathe the balsam of the pines. Bathe in the light of the god of glory. Cut the weeds; raise the garden; pick the fruit; hear a sermon; listen to the songs.

Don't be a clam. Work, somehow. Do a little good. Make somebody happier. How easy it is!

Don't fool away your vacation!

Cost of a Strike

Figures just compiled under the direction of the president of one of the largest coal companies with headquarters in the East show the wage loss to mine owners during the suspension of work from April 1 to May 15, ordered by John Mitchell, president of the miners' union, amounted to more than $12,000,000.

The $1.55 per ton does not include the salaries of superintendents, office men, or any other wage item beyond the amount paid to the actual workers in the mine and breaker. During the period of idleness the men received no allowance from their union, so that when they returned to the mines after six weeks' idleness, on exactly the same terms prevailing when they were ordered out, their loss of earnings amounted to over $12,000,000 net.

The silver loving cup, valued at $500, which is to be given for the best state exhibits of fruits at the exposition of the products of irrigation, to be held at Boise during the session of the National Irrigation Congress, will be warmly contested for by the fruit growers of Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, California, Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho, and will be the most varied display of fruits ever made in the Northwest. More than twenty valuable silver cups will be given for association and individual exhibits of different varieties and collections of fruits. The latter prizes will be permanent gifts to the winners while the state cup is for future contests to be held during succeeding sessions of the irrigation congress.

Lafollette, of Wisconsin, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for president, but he evidently does not expect the support of Oregon's delegation. Washington dispatches say that he is coming out here to make speeches in order to tell the people how Senator Charles Fulton is a tool of the corporations.

Bees as Embalmers.

When foreign bodies are put into a beehive the bees generally cover them with propolis, or bee glue. By way of experiment a rag doll and a cloth rabbit were put into a hive by a writer for St. Nicholas.

"Imagine my surprise," he says, "when I opened the hive about three weeks later to find that they had used very little propolis on either, but had nibbled almost all the clothes from the doll and had even attacked the stockings. What they had failed to take off and carry out hung in delicate fibers and shreds, apparently ready to be removed. Did they expect to dispose of the entire doll in that way?"

"The rabbit was slightly soiled, but not smeared or nibbled. The bees had, however, utilized it as a support for a comb, which they had attached in the most astonishing manner to one ear and to the tip of one fore foot.

"The cloth of which the rabbit was made was different from that of the doll. Did the bees find it more difficult or impossible to nibble this? Did they know that it was unnecessary to seal it in, as would have been necessary with a small animal liable to decay, and since they must endure the intruder's presence did they determine to make it useful as payment for the valuable room that it occupied?"

The fact that there are but ten commandments to be broken is quite a handicap on the ability of some men.

Physicians May Be Mistaken As to Incurable Sufferers

UNDERSTAND this subject of euthanasia to be the putting to death of persons suffering from incurable diseases. I AM BITTERLY OPPOSED to any such suggestion. I have experienced many cases in my lifetime where PHYSICIANS HAD DECIDED that suffering patients COULD NOT LIVE, but by careful nursing they CAME AROUND ALL RIGHT. I tell you, where there is life there is hope. I have talked with many of our leading physicians upon this subject, and they agree with me. They why put to death a sufferer?

THE MENTAL ANGUISH OF A PERSON WHO MIGHT BE DECIDED FIT TO BE PUT OUT OF THIS WORLD BECAUSE OF SUFFERING WOULD BE GREATER IF HE KNEW HIS FATE THAN ANY PHYSICAL SUFFERING HE MIGHT ENDURE.

American Taste For Humor Is Jaded Through Overfeeding

SO many brilliant men have written and joked for the Americans that THEY HAVE BECOME JADED. I thought at first that the American sense of humor was radically less subtle than ours in England, but now I know better. IT IS SIMPLY OVERFED. Mark Twain is, I think, the only living humorist of the old American school, and he, like Falstaff, is growing old. But THE SUBTLE TOUCH that England likes still and America liked once IS STILL HIS.

You have grown tired and NEED COARSER FARE to stimulate your appetite. And I've discovered THE CAUSE of it too. It is the COARSE SUPPLEMENT OF THE SUNDAY PAPERS.

A Poem for Today

STAY AT HOME, MY HEART By H. W. Longfellow STAY, stay at home, my heart, and rest; Home keeping hearts are happiest. For those that wander they know not where Are full of trouble and full of care. To stay at home is best.

LIVELY BOUT AT NEWPORT SATURDAY

There was rather a lively bout at Newport on Saturday. In the last issue of his paper Editor Mathews of the Newport News, is said to have criticized the deputy marshal of the city in a very mild way. The deputy resigned his position, hunted up Mr. Mathews and proceeded to "do him up", making several good size bruises on his face. The ex-deputy was arrested and fined, and it is said will be proceeded against in a higher court.

SOUTHERN OREGON CHATAUQUA ASSEMBLY

The Southern Oregon Chatauqua assembly opens at Ashland July 11 and continues until the 20th. A very good program has been arranged and the grove where the assembly is held is one of the most delightful in all Oregon. Among the attractions are Dr. Chas. Edward Locke, Mrs. Martha S. Gielow, Captain Jack Crawford and Miss Belle Koenig, and there will be a splendid musical program. Railroads have granted reduced rates and accommodations at Ashland are very reasonable.

A Tragic Finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a hawk in the great North Sea dyke, which a while ago could have been stopped, to become a runaway hawk, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vancouver, B.C., permitted a cold to get unattended until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by the neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at W. L. DeLaney's drug store, 500 and 501 1/2 Trial Fiddle street.
