Prices For Prunes

Advice from the largest prune growing districts of Oregon are to the effect that the growers are dissatisfied with the price outlook. While the yield promises to be only fair in quantity it is alleged that the dealers have combined for the purpose of getting the crop as cheaply as possible.

W. K. Newell, president of the state board of horticulture, is quoted as saying that the Northwest crop will be near 25,000,000 pounds, or 2,000,000 pounds less than the record crop two years ago.

W. K. Newell, president of the state board of horticulture, is quoted as saying that the Northwest crop will be near 25,000,000 pounds, or 2,000,000 pounds less than the record crop two years ago.

The Pacific Fruit World, in a recent issue, says regarding the crop and state of prune stocks:

The prune market continues weak, though there is nothing to justify the low prices prevailing save the operations of the speculators who are engaged in a bear campaign.

The Daily Guard's subscription list is growing faster than ever, and "today's news today" is read regularly in a large majority of the homes in Eugene and vicinity.

ness promoter, when coupled with honest dealing and wide awake methods, and the most effective publicity is now recognized as that secured through the medium of newspapers of standing and worth.

In the British parliament, the labor party, which is about forty members strong, is constraining the Liberal party to pass a bill to counteract a judicial decision. The bill gives a trade union, whether of workmen or employers, complete immunity from claims for damages for illegal acts committed by individuals during a strike.

Sam has stringent laws against lotteries, but the interior department uses the system freely in disposing of Indian land. There are as many as 10,583 applicants for the drawing of Shoshone reserve in Wyoming. The homeseekers could do better by coming to Oregon where land can be had on reasonable terms.

Pittsburg is perhaps entitled to the banner for the longest divorce case on record. The Hartje case in which the millionaires of that name sued for divorce occupied five weeks. In instances of downright perjury the case has seldom, if ever, been outdone, the contradictions being direct and emphatic.

Book and Art Goods Sale

While we are getting ready to move into our new building we will sell our books and art goods at very low prices. The cost of moving pictures, pottery, china, etc., is considerable on account of the danger of injury, and it will be better to sell these goods at cost than to move them.

Goods can be paid for by installments if desirable. This will be a good opportunity for those who enjoy good books and things.

A Tragic Finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland.

Notice to Bidders.

Notice is hereby given that the Willamette Valley Co. will receive bids at their office, 644 Willamette street, up to 2 p. m. Thursday, August 9, for excavating a well 100x20x14 feet.

The company reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Certified checks to accompany each bid.

The Limitation of Wealth

By WILLIAM H. TIMLIN, Justice Elect to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin

IT will never do to inaugurate a socialistic regime with the idle dream of having a majority in numbers, but a minority in strength and skill, to hold down all others to a DEAD LEVEL of endeavor and reward.

One of the first things that we must give up is the notion that an individual or corporation has the right to get, hold or own AS MUCH money or property of the country as he or it can acquire. There should be a limitation written into the constitution of the United States, where the forces of repeal, which are sure to arise, CANNOT EASILY REACH IT, providing the maximum amount of money and property which can be held by any one person, natural or artificial.

A rational code of laws governing relations of corporations and their servants, such as exists in England, France and Germany, and even in Russia, but, alas, does not exist in the United States, should be enacted. THE POWER OF PETTY OFFICIALS TO GRANT VALUABLE FRANCHISES SHOULD BE TAKEN AWAY AND SUCH FRANCHISES SHOULD BE GRANTED UPON CONDEMNATION AND PAYMENT OF THEIR REASONABLE VALUE, AND BE SUBJECT TO REAPPRAISAL PERIODICALLY.

Only 82 Years Old

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine.

Three Facts for You to Consider

A shoemaker by trade can select good shoes, where others rely on statements made by the seller. A shoe house paying heavy rent and other heavy expenses puts the additional price on the stock you buy.

If you will study the facts above you can plainly see why it is a fact we save you money and give you goods that wear.
