AN INDEPENDENT PAPER. FRIDAY, AUGUST 10

Bright Outlook Ahead.

Yesterday's Guard printed a dispatch from Portland telling of the letting of a contract to C. E. Loss for the building of the first 40 mile section of the Drain-Coos Bay road. This is good news and the first Guard was as usual the newspaper to spread the tidings, probably because nearly all the really important news, good or bad, is printed in the evening paper 14 or 15 hours ahead of the morning reprints.

The building of the Coos bay line seems to us to mark the beginning of an era of railroad building and commercial development that will transform Western Oregon into one of the most populous and prosperous sections of the United States. Any time we may expect to hear of the letting of contracts for the Natron-Ontario-Klamath road, which will more directly affect the Willamette valley and Eugene. Then there is no longer any reasonable doubt of the extension of the Portland-Salem electric road to Eugene, where it will connect up with the city and suburban system soon to be built by the Willamette Valley Con. With all these increasing facilities for transportation and a reasonable prospect that the Oregon & Coast road may be able to consummate its plans of building across Lane county to the Siuslaw and down the coast, the influx of population and increase in business will be almost incalculable during the next five years. Factories and other industrial enterprises will come as a natural sequence to the increase in population, making a demand for their goods, and their payrolls will add to the general prosperity.

At the beginning of such an era it behooves a city like Eugene to be progressive and alert, awake to every opportunity. Ambitious rivals on all sides will seek to secure advantages of trade and transportation, but the commanding geographical situation of this city is such that we need have no fear of the future, providing our people display the proper public spirit and make a reasonable effort to keep up with the procession.

The Salem Journal intimates that H. W. Scott and T. B. Wilcox may become candidates for United States senator before the next legislature, and no one would be surprised if this prediction is verified. The trouble is that complications may arise over the election of senators by the popular method and by the legislature under the present primary law. The constitution of the United States says that the senators shall be "chosen by the legislature of each state." Some sturdy member of a legislature may refuse to be bound by the popular vote as recorded at the polls. He may even have refused to give any pledge in advance of his own election. In close contests this may become a serious matter. The United States constitution should be amended so as to be in accord with the newly devised method.

The Review of Reviews contains a four-page article on Oregon political affairs which dwells chiefly with the progressive principles adopted by the people of this state. The recent election has caused a great deal of comment in all Eastern magazines and newspapers, but the writer in the Review of Reviews sees in the recent vote on the various measures under the initiative referendum the most important feature. The discrimination of the voters, who voted intelligently on 11 propositions appeals to the author as a mark of the great awakening in Oregon on principles of government. Oregon is given the credit of taking the lead in popular government and if we are to judge ourselves by this writer we have done better than we knew. This state, by its direct primary law and initiative and referendum system, has taken the reins of government from the bosses and placed them in the hands of the plain people.

A town is generally best judged by the size and general appearance of its newspapers, and in this way Eugene must be rated as a leader in Oregon. Take the Guard, for instance, and note the improvement in size and appearance since it was purchased by the reorganized Guard Printing Co. on May 1. Yesterday, in the middle of the week, it is compelled to print eight large pages, 56 columns, in order to carry its advertising business. When a stranger looks over such a newspaper as the Daily Guard he naturally concludes that Eugene and Lane county are "up and coming."

PATRONIZE THE MERCHANTS WHOSE ADVERTISEMENTS YOU READ IN THE DAILY GUARD. THEY CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO THE SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS THEY HAVE TO OFFER IN A MODERN, UP-TO-DATE MANNER. THE GUARD'S ADVERTISING COLUMNS GIVE A COMPLETE PRESENTATION OF THE STORE NEWS OF THE DAY, AND THE BUSINESSMAN WHO DOES NOT TALK TO THE PUBLIC THROUGH THAT MEDIUM EVIDENTLY HAS NOTHING OF INTEREST TO SAY TO THE BUYERS.

Good evening—does Mr. Harriman own you? asks the Albany Democrat. A hard question to answer. E. H. Harriman and John D. Rockefeller may be said to possess the "earth and the fulness thereof"—and there is very little opportunity left for individual independence.

Oregon has need of fewer railroad surveyors and more tracklayers.

Some Albany Misfits

(Albany Democrat.) Why isn't Binger Herrmann, who continues to hang to his office and draw his salary, at home with his constituency earning his money.

Those dime novels bought in Portland will cost Lane county a good deal of money by the time the boys have been tried for murder.

Wherever the newspaper man goes after death it will be heaven to be in the other place from the dead beat subscriber.

A big $75,000,000 syndicate or trust has been formed in Brazil, which will practically control the coffee market of the world, and prices have already been raised generally through the United States.

The End of the World

o' troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. Sure cure for all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, blood diseases, headache, dizziness and weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by W. L. DeLano's drug store.

The Modern Advance Toward Peace Among the Nations

By CARDINAL GIBBONS

PRIOR to the dawn of Christianity the motto of the conqueror was, "Woe to the Vanquished." Alexander the Great, after the capture of the city of Tyre, ordered 2,000 of the inhabitants to be crucified, and the remainder of the population were put to death or sold into slavery.

How different was the conduct of General Scott after his successful siege of the City of Mexico. As soon as the enemy surrendered not a single soldier or citizen was sacrificed to the vengeance of the victorious army, and NOT A SINGLE FAMILY was exiled from its native land.

During the siege of Jerusalem, in the year 70 of the Christian era, under Titus, the Roman general, more than 1,000,000 Jews perished by the sword and famine. And yet Titus was regarded as a benevolent ruler and was called the "delight of the human race."

Let us contrast the conduct of Titus toward the Jews with General Grant's treatment of the defeated Confederate forces. When General Lee surrendered his sword at Appomattox Court House he and his brave army were permitted to return WITHOUT MOLESTATION to their respective homes.

A hundred years ago disputes between individuals were commonly decided BY A DUEL. Thanks to the humanizing influence of a Christian public opinion, these disagreements are now usually adjusted by legislation or conciliation.

HAVE WE NOT REASON TO HOPE THAT THE SAME PACIFIC AGENCIES WHICH HAVE CHECKED THE DUEL BETWEEN INDIVIDUALS WILL, IN GOD'S OWN TIME, CHECK THE DUEL BETWEEN NATIONS?

Book and Art Goods Sale

While we are getting ready to move into our new building we will sell our books and art goods at very low prices. The cost of moving pictures, pottery, china, etc., is considerable on account of the danger of injury, and it will be better to sell these goods at cost than to move them. Goods can be paid for by installments if desirable. This will be a good opportunity for those who enjoy good books and things. ALLEN EATON.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption in the past five years and it keeps me safe and well. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic coughs, la-grippe, croup, whooping cough and prevents pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at W. L. DeLano's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
