Buy's Woman's Exchange

Mrs. A. W. Skipworth has sold her dairy business to Mr. Bennett, who will take charge on September 1, and has purchased the Woman's Exchange, which is supplying many customers with home cooked bread, pies, cakes, etc. In her new location she solicits the patronage of the public and hopes to increase the already excellent business of her predecessor.

Mrs. Skipworth had leased Mrs. Candiff's cottage on Patterson street, near the mill race, but the latter kindly canceled the lease at her request. The cottage is now for rent.
