

AMUSEMENTS

From all reports we are going to have the treat of the theatrical season in Lee Willard's engagement. The ability of this young actor has been accepted and acknowledged throughout the East as well as the West, where he appeared in "The Christian" two years ago, playing John Storm. Since that time he has been universally acknowledged throughout the East as the most clever of our young actors. In Monte Cristo, the play that will live forever, Mr. Willard excels all others, having every attribute necessary for such a part, stage presence, a most wonderful voice, magnetism and above all, the real genius in the conception of his parts. Mr. Willard has a most well balanced company supporting him of Eastern people. Mr. Willard appears at the Eugene theatre Monday, October 8.
