Warden's Fruit Dryer Burned.
Bears Seem to Be Very Plentiful.
L. Davis Builds Residence on His Ranch

Special Correspondence.
Iverson, Oct. 9.—All of our citizens who went hop picking have returned home and report good earnings.

Guard C. Huston, of Madison was in this neighborhood last week.

A. E. Whitaker, the Walton onion farmer, was delivering onions in Iverson and vicinity last week. Mr. Whitaker gave an excellent quality and a great quantity of onions.

E. E. Mink, subscription agent for the Guard, was in this neighborhood last week. He left for Deadwood and Indian Creek.

The Notli school begins this week with Miss Edith Meyers as teacher. This is Miss Meyers' third term with the Notli school, which is a good recommendation for any teacher.

L. Davis, whose house was destroyed by fire several months ago, has completed another commodious structure on his homestead which will soon be occupied by himself and wife. Mr. Davis has also completed a good wagon road to his place and is now ready to receive his friends in the most modern style.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dickinson and Mr. Delton have gone to Elmira, where Delton will enter school. Mr. Dickinson will return to his ranch and finish up a lot of improvements which he has under way. He contemplates putting out a peach orchard, which would be a good venture, as peaches do well in most localities here in the mountains.

L. Warden had the misfortune to lose his dryer and a lot of dried fruit in a few days ago.

On October 3, to Mr. and Mrs. George Vaughn, a son, weight 8 pounds. Mother and child doing well, and we think with proper attention that George will survive.

Bears seem to be more plentiful here than for several years, nearly every orchard at vacant places along the creek and river have one or three bears using them. W. T.

Cornelius killed one in M. P. Maybe's orchard and the Lyons boys killed two in the Thurman orchard and George Hole and others killed one on Elk Prairie, and others are yet to be heard from.

The Iverson school will soon open with J. Edward Boyd, of Halsey, as teacher.
