The Blue River Road

The following is the Linn county view of the Blue River road question—that is, it is presumed to be, as it is the editorial expression of the Brownsville Times. It is published for what it is worth, simply so we of one county may see ourselves as others see us. The Times says:

"Lane county is in a peck of trouble, and all on account of the Blue River and Calapooia mines which she is so afraid will be 'absorbed' by some more enterprising community—one that stands ready to give the miners free access to the outside world in exchange for their trade. Eugene has been so niggardly with the miners of the district in providing a suitable wagon road that it is no wonder they were compelled to take the initiative in the matter of forcing the county to do something to make the Lucky Boy road a public highway. In doing this, however, without awarding proper damages to the miners who have built the road, they have stirred up a hornet's nest that only the courts can settle. Lane county has never built a road into the district. The impracticable and almost impassable Gate Creek road is a county road, but the county did not build it, and the county has spent very little money in repairing it since it became a county road. The Great Northern road was built with the money of Linn county people almost entirely, and Linn county people assisted in building the road from the Lucky Boy road to the divide between the McKenzie and the Calapooia. Now Lane county comes along and lays a county road over these private roads constructed by private individuals over private property. The people of Linn are not kicking—if Lane will keep the roads up. They are enterprising enough to desire to see the district opened up and developed and this can only be done after a system of good roads are established into the district. Lane, and especially the merchants of Eugene, who have so long held the trade of the district, should 'loosen up' and exhibit a more enterprising spirit in dealing with miners, a goodly number of whom are Linn county people."

Two great questions of the hour: Who will win the world's baseball championship? and where will Eugene's federal building be located?

The Pendleton East Oregonian stuck to its "simplified" spelling for just a week. It was not as simple as it seemed.

knows the republican party has not been helped by these methods nor the people benefited.

But the machine is preparing to repeat the outrage of politically manipulating themselves into office again for another 10 years.

It will be somewhat odd to find Richard Croker, former head of Tammany Hall, plaintiff in a Dublin court. But he wants to be "vindicated" and for that purpose has secured as leading counsel James William Campbell, a distinguished lawyer. The Harmsworth companies, of London, who are defendants, are stubbornly fighting the former boss. Croker may be exposed to a searching cross-examination and the machinery and methods of Tammany may become public property. "Dick" has many enemies in New York who will readily cross the ocean to give him the worst kind of character. Old files of the New York World in which the query: "Where did you get it?" was asked daily of "Dick," in regard to his wealth may be produced. There was a great deal of plunder in Croker's time and he became rich in some mysterious way which did not include hard work by any means.

Great growing climate here in Oregon! Here is the Daily Guard that since May let has grown from a four-page, six-column paper to a seven-column, six-page edition every day except Saturday, when it's bigger still—eight large pages, crammed with all the news of the day fit to print.

If Senator Clark concludes that he would like to return to the United States senate and F. Aug. Heintz attempts to thwart his ambition, there will be money, instead of razors, in the Montana atmosphere.

The Cure For Anarchism

By CHARLES J. BONAPARTE, Secretary of the Navy

ANARCHISM will not be removed within a given time or through a special measure or set of measures. Perhaps it will not be wholly removed in any time or by any means. I believe that anarchism has been and can be made less dangerous by being dealt with SERIOUSLY AND RATIONALLY.

In the first place the unlawful acts prompted by anarchism should be made crimes in so far as they are not, strictly speaking, crimes already, and should be punished with such penalties as are particularly distasteful to the criminals and therefore the most effective deterrents to crime.

To keep an anarchist for years in a penitentiary merely burdens the community with the support of an irreconcilable enemy, with constant risk of his escape or pardon and the certainty that whenever he leaves he will be, if possible, A WORSE MAN THAN WHEN HE ENTERED. On anarchists the death penalty should be unequivocally imposed by law and inflexibly executed whenever the prisoner has sought, directly or indirectly, to take life.

For offenses of less gravity I advise a comparatively brief but VERY RIGOROUS imprisonment, characterized by complete seclusion, deprivation of all comfort and denial of any form of distraction, and a severe, but not public, whipping. THE LASH, of all punishments, most clearly shows the culprit that he suffers for what his fellow men hold odious and disgraceful and not merely for reason of public policy.

Any abridgment from fear of the anarchists of that freedom of speech and of the press guaranteed us by our state and federal constitutions would be neither a wise nor a worthy policy; but these privileges in nowise shield COUNSELORS OF CRIME or instigators of disorder and rebellion. A published writing recommending the murder of the chief magistrate and the violent overthrow of the government is a seditious libel AT COMMON LAW, and there is no good reason why the public utterance of spoken words of the same purport should not be made a like offense by statute.

IT IS ALREADY A CRIME TO ADVISE A FELONY OR GRAVE MISDEMEANOR IF THE ADVICE LEADS TO THE CRIME SUGGESTED, AND THERE IS NO GOOD REASON WHY THIS SHOULD NOT BECOME A SUBSTANTIVE OFFENSE WITHOUT REGARD TO ITS CONSEQUENCES.

"The World Will End In 1982"

By EDMUND SCRIBNER STEVENS, Ph.D., of Washington

THE earth is out of her place, or upright position. It is gradually resuming it. Whenever there is an accelerated or faster motion than in that period EARTHQUAKES OCCUR. We are now in one of those periods, from Mont Pelee, 1900 to 1915; again, from 1925 to 1946½; again, from 1965 to 2000 A. D.

IN 1922 THE EARTHQUAKE IS OF SUCH EXTENT THAT ALL THE CITIES OF ALL THE NATIONS FALL.

From 2035 to 3144 A. D. the earth is in continual perturbation, and in the latter year settles to its upright position. This brings in the new heaven and NEW EARTH.

A Poem for Today

THE WIDOW MALONE

By Charles Lever

Did ye hear of the Widow Malone,
 Ohone!
 Who lived in the town of Athlone,
 Alone?
 Oh, she melted the hearts
 Of the swains in them parts,
 So lovely the Widow Malone,
 Ohone!
 So lovely the Widow Malone.

Of lovers she had a full score
 Or more,
 And fortunes they all had galore
 In store,
 From the minister down
 To the clerk of the crown,
 All were courting the Widow Malone,
 Ohone!
 All were courting the Widow Malone.

But so modest was Mrs. Malone,
 'Twas known,
 No one ever could see her alone,
 Ohone!

Let them ogle and sigh,
 They could ne'er catch her eye,
 So bashful the Widow Malone,
 Ohone!
 So bashful the Widow Malone.

Till one Mr. O'Brien from Clare—
 How queer!
 It's little for blushing they care
 Down there—
 Put his arm round her waist,
 Gave ten kisses at last;
 "Oh," says he, "you're my Molly Malone,
 My own!
 "Oh," says he, "you're my Molly Malone,
 My own!

And the widow they all thought so shy,
 My eye,
 Ne'er thought of a simper or sigh—
 For why?
 But "Lucius," says she,
 "Since you've now made so free
 You may marry your Molly Malone,
 Ohone!
 You may marry your Molly Malone."

There's a moral contained in my song,
 Not wrong,
 And, one comfort, it's not very long,
 But strong,
 If for widows you die,
 Learn to kiss, not to sigh,
 For they're all like sweet Mistress Malone,
 Ohone!
 Oh, they're very like Mistress Malone!
