

Society Events

Mrs. Mary Stewart Ralston this afternoon entertained fourteen or fifteen of her young lady friends, serving a luncheon at 1 o'clock, a neat affair with a tasty menu, says Friday's Albany Democrat. At the close of the luncheon the engagement of Miss Lena Miller and Frank Templeton was announced and the news was received with pleasure by the friends of the popular young people. Mr. Templeton, now a resident of Portland, is famous as a member of the U. of O. foot ball team of several seasons, and Miss Lena Miller, a graduate of Albany college, is a daughter of Hon. F. J. Miller, of this city, beloved by many. The date of the happy event has not been announced.

Juanita Rebskah Lodge, of Springfield held a meeting Monday evening of this week, initiating twelve candidates into the mysteries of the order. A number of out-of-town guests were present, including Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chessman, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gordon, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willoughby, Mrs. A. L. Peter, Mrs. Quiner, Mrs. Williams and Miss Bernice Chessman, of Eugene, Mrs. Ella J. Frazer, past president of the Rebskah assembly, also Professor Roberts and Mr. Kountz. At a late hour a sumptuous luncheon was served, consisting of sandwiches, cake, coffee, salads, pickles, celery and grapes. A great many of the brothers were unable to respond to the request made for speeches, as they were too full for utterance.—News.

Last evening, after the regular business meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood, at which time a class of candidates was initiated, quite a number of invited guests joined the members in having a real good time and enjoying a short program. The supper march was then taken to the dining room, where the hungry were given food, a feature being a well-known delicacy cooked by bachelor members of the lodge. Dancing and conversation until the hour of home-going.

Deacon gave his first dancing party of the season in Davies hall last evening. The affair was a splendid success, a good-sized crowd being present, the music excellent and the floor in good condition.

The theatre orchestra will give its second dance tonight in the armory. Last Saturday's affair was a very pleasant one, attended almost exclusively by students. Additional invitations have been sent out, and hereafter the dances will be more eagerly attended.

Mrs. J. W. Kays entertained the members of the Woman's Patriotic League at her home on South Willamette this afternoon. The usual papers on interesting topics were read and discussed and light refreshments served.

Miss Minnie Chambers will give a farewell reception to Miss Ada Morris at her home on West Sixth street this evening.

The Epworth League of the Humphrey Memorial M. E. church tendered a reception to the students of the university and high school in the church parlors last evening. The affair was largely attended and proved to be an unqualified success.

City News in Brief

Chief of Police Farrington is in Albany today on a visit. Jim Turner, the efficient street commissioner, is taking his place during his absence.

A wagon load of Salslaw salmon was peddled on the streets today.

Rev. D. E. Loveridge has the thanks of the Guard force for a basket of splendid grapes grown on his farm between Eugene and Springfield.

Billee Taylor, the candy man, formerly of Eugene, and who has resided at Salem several years past, spending the summers at Newport, has moved to Marshfield, where he has opened a store and factory.

The Eugene Baking Co. has received a machine for making doughnuts. Patty is up-to-date in all things.

A shipment of 72 beer barrels was made from here to the Albany brewery today. At the same time a smaller shipment of barrels filled with bottles of beer was received. This is said to be a daily occurrence in this "dry" town.

Jack Poill, the genial janitor at the university, was injured last evening by being thrown to the ground by his horse. He was leading the animal when it shied, jerking him off his feet. His right hip and knee were badly bruised. He is nearly 80 years old.

The S. P. steam shovel will be at work at the Eugene gravel pit three or four days longer and then the several train crews that have made Eugene their headquarters for a number of weeks past will leave.

The frame work of the new Catholic church is up.

Lee Hosilton has placed his fine new counter in his cigar store. It was made by Day & Henderson.

Leave orders for piano tuning and repair work at Eilers, Eugene's big piano house on West Seventh street. All work guaranteed satisfactory. ti
