COTTAGE GROVE

BOOT-LEGGER

Cottage Grove, Or., Oct. 15.—A mass meeting called by all the churches was held last night at the city hall to discuss the saloon question that is to be voted on next Thursday. The hall was packed to its utmost and many were unable to gain entrance.

The city council passed an ordinance calling for a vote to decide this question, upon the ground that the last legislature vested the authority of municipalities governing such matter. There has been boot-legging going on here ever since the local option law went into effect. The temperance element is much aroused and are determined to make a bitter fight.

One thing is certain, and that is the bootleggers will have the law dealt out to them in a few days and in one instance an application of tar and feathers is being arranged for one lawbreaker.

Buying for Cash at the Factory and Shipping by the Car- load Tells the Story

After Figuring With Other Piano Dealers and Looking Into the Matter Carefully Two Eugene Business Men Buy Pianos From Morris Music House

W. L. Souders, proprietor of the Bon Marche store, who has given away many pianos during his business career, after getting prices, quality considered, from many other dealers, purchased a fine Kohler & Campbell piano to be given away as a premium. This piano will be on display in the Bon Marche show window as soon as the first car arrives.

In fulfillment of the Register's premium contest recently held, whereby a young lady who is a prominent Eugene musician, was awarded a fine piano to be selected by herself, after looking at many pianos she selected a beautiful Kohler & Campbell piano, which will also be delivered from the first carload, due to arrive in a few days.
