

City News in Brief

In a $125,000 purchase of a suburban tract of land at Portland H. R. Kincaid, of Eugene, takes $10,000 of the stock. The land is being platted preliminary to putting it on the market.

A. O. Bray, a Southern Pacific bridge carpenter, is at the Eugene hospital with an injured knee. While working at Marcola he cut his knee quite deeply with an axe.

The theatre orchestra will give no more dancing parties this season. They have entered into an agreement with Deacon and hereafter their dances will be given in Davies' hall.

Henry D. Waller, well known in Eugene, being an uncle of Mrs. W. W. Branstetter, died at Independence Thursday. He was a well-known former merchant of that place.

Joe Riley, arrested by Officer Croner Saturday night for being drunk and disorderly, was given ten days on the streets by Police Judge Dorris this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Lane County Medical Society Saturday night Dr. T. W. Harris read a paper on "Physiology," Dr. J. W. Harris on "Obstetrics," and Dr. W. L. Cheshire on "Diseases of Children." This was the first meeting of the society in the new quarters in the Chrisman block.

Very few ducks are now being killed in this vicinity, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The first heavy winter rain will bring them in and then look out for the slaughter.

A big jack rabbit running down East Ninth street, turning down Willamette at the Hoffman House and disappearing in the first alley, created some excitement at noon today.

Dr. Bennett occupied the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, who was called to Creswell to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Hazelton.

A Wells Fargo express wagon was shipped up from Albany today to take the place of the one used here while the latter is undergoing repairs.

M. Santro, recently from Chicago, has taken a chair in Geo. Sovern's barber shop. Mr. Sovern will hereafter run three chairs.

Mrs. H. Grubbe, residing near Irving, lost a purse containing about $20 today while in town. She thinks she left it on a bench at the Rest Cottage. She missed in when she got nearly half way home and when she returned it was gone.

CITY WANTS MORE

MEN WITH TEAMS

The scarcity of labor is just now inconveniencing the city to some extent. Half a dozen men and teams are wanted to haul gravel on the streets but it is impossible to get them. There are already that number at work on East Thirteenth street, but it is desired to finish the graveling of the streets before the winter rains set in and in order to do this more teams are necessary.

Died

Mrs. Michael Weber died at her home at Donna Saturday night, of pleural fever. Besides her husband she leaves two children, both boys, aged two years and three weeks respectively. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Catholic church in Eugene, with interment in the Masonic cemetery.
